Competency Based Training (CBT) and assessment an introduction for trainers

Competency

Competency refers to the ability to perform particular tasks and duties to the standard of performance expected in the workplace.

Competency requires the application of specified knowledge, skills and attitudes relevant to effective participation, consistently over time and in the workplace environment.

The essential skills and knowledge are either identified separately or combined.

Knowledge identifies what a person needs to know to perform the work in an informed and effective manner.

Skills describe the application of knowledge to situations where understanding is converted into a workplace outcome.

Attitude describes the founding reasons behind the need for certain knowledge or why skills are performed in a specified manner.

Competency covers all aspects of workplace performance and involves:

- Performing individual tasks
- Managing a range of different tasks
- Responding to contingencies or breakdowns
- Dealing with the responsibilities of the workplace
- Working with others.

Unit of Competency

Like with any training qualification or program, a range of subject topics are identified that focus on the ability in a certain work area, responsibility or function.

Each manual focuses on a specific unit of competency that applies in the hospitality workplace.

In this manual a unit of competency is identified as a 'unit'.

Each unit of competency identifies a discrete workplace requirement and includes:

- Knowledge and skills that underpin competency
- Language, literacy and numeracy
- Occupational safety and health requirements.

Each unit of competency must be adhered to in training and assessment to ensure consistency of outcomes.

Element of Competency

An element of competency describes the essential outcomes within a unit of competency.

The elements of competency are the basic building blocks of the unit of competency. They describe in terms of outcomes the significant functions and tasks that make up the competency.

In this manual elements of competency are identified as an 'element'.

Performance criteria

Performance criteria indicate the standard of performance that is required to demonstrate achievement within an element of competency. The standards reflect identified industry skill needs.

Performance criteria will be made up of certain specified skills, knowledge and attitudes.

Learning

For the purpose of this manual learning incorporates two key activities:

- Training
- Assessment.

Both of these activities will be discussed in detail in this introduction.

Today training and assessment can be delivered in a variety of ways. It may be provided to participants:

- On-the-job – in the workplace
- Off-the-job – at an educational institution or dedicated training environment
- As a combination of these two options.

No longer is it necessary for learners to be absent from the workplace for long periods of time in order to obtain recognised and accredited qualifications.

Learning Approaches

This manual will identify two avenues to facilitate learning:

Competency Based Training (CBT)

This is the strategy of developing a participant's competency.

Educational institutions utilise a range of training strategies to ensure that participants are able to gain the knowledge and skills required for successful:

- Completion of the training program or qualification
- Implementation in the workplace.

The strategies selected should be chosen based on suitability and the learning styles of participants.

Competency Based Assessment (CBA)

This is the strategy of assessing competency of a participant.

Educational institutions utilise a range of assessment strategies to ensure that participants are assessed in a manner that demonstrates validity, fairness, reliability, flexibility and fairness of assessment processes.

Flexibility in Learning

It is important to note that flexibility in training and assessment strategies is required to meet the needs of participants who may have learning difficulties. The strategies used will vary, taking into account the needs of individual participants with learning difficulties. However they will be applied in a manner which does not discriminate against the participant or the participant body as a whole.

Catering for Participant Diversity

Participants have diverse backgrounds, needs and interests. When planning training and assessment activities to cater for individual differences, trainers and assessors should:

- Consider individuals' experiences, learning styles and interests
- Develop questions and activities that are aimed at different levels of ability
- Modify the expectations for some participants
- Provide opportunities for a variety of forms of participation, such as individual, pair and small group activities
- Assess participants based on individual progress and outcomes.

The diversity among participants also provides a good reason for building up a learning community in which participants support each other's learning.

Participant Centred Learning

This involves taking into account structuring training and assessment that:

- Builds on strengths – Training environments need to demonstrate the many positive features of local participants (such as the attribution of academic success to effort, and the social nature of achievement motivation) and of their trainers (such as a strong emphasis on subject disciplines and moral responsibility). These strengths and uniqueness of local participants and trainers should be acknowledged and treasured
- Acknowledges prior knowledge and experience – The learning activities should be planned with participants' prior knowledge and experience in mind
- Understands learning objectives – Each learning activity should have clear learning objectives and participants should be informed of them at the outset. Trainers should also be clear about the purpose of assignments and explain their significance to participants
- Teaches for understanding – The pedagogies chosen should aim at enabling participants to act and think flexibly with what they know
- Teaches for independent learning – Generic skills and reflection should be nurtured through learning activities in appropriate contexts of the curriculum. Participants should be encouraged to take responsibility for their own learning

- Enhances motivation – Learning is most effective when participants are motivated. Various strategies should be used to arouse the interest of participants
- Makes effective use of resources – A variety of teaching resources can be employed as tools for learning
- Maximises engagement – In conducting learning activities, it is important for the minds of participants to be actively engaged
- Aligns assessment with learning and teaching – Feedback and assessment should be an integral part of learning and teaching
- Caters for learner diversity – Trainers should be aware that participants have different characteristics and strengths and try to nurture these rather than impose a standard set of expectations.

Active Learning

The goal of nurturing independent learning in participants does not imply that they always have to work in isolation or solely in a classroom. On the contrary, the construction of knowledge in tourism and hospitality studies can often best be carried out in collaboration with others in the field. Sharing experiences, insights and views on issues of common concern, and working together to collect information through conducting investigative studies in the field (active learning) can contribute a lot to their eventual success.

Active learning has an important part to play in fostering a sense of community in the class. First, to operate successfully, a learning community requires an ethos of acceptance and a sense of trust among participants, and between them and their trainers. Trainers can help to foster acceptance and trust through encouragement and personal example, and by allowing participants to take risks as they explore and articulate their views, however immature these may appear to be. Participants also come to realise that their classmates (and their trainers) are partners in learning and solving.

Trainers can also encourage cooperative learning by designing appropriate group learning tasks, which include, for example, collecting background information, conducting small-scale surveys, or producing media presentations on certain issues and themes. Participants need to be reminded that, while they should work towards successful completion of the field tasks, developing positive peer relationships in the process is an important objective of all group work.

Competency Based Training (CBT)

Principle of Competency Based Training

Competency based training is aimed at developing the knowledge, skills and attitudes of participants, through a variety of training tools.

Training Strategies

The aims of this curriculum are to enable participants to:

- Undertake a variety of subject courses that are relevant to industry in the current environment
- Learn current industry skills, information and trends relevant to industry
- Learn through a range of practical and theoretical approaches
- Be able to identify, explore and solve issues in a productive manner

- Be able to become confident, equipped and flexible managers of the future
- Be 'job ready' and a valuable employee in the industry upon graduation of any qualification level.

To ensure participants are able to gain the knowledge and skills required to meet competency in each unit of competency in the qualification, a range of training delivery modes are used.

Types of Training

In choosing learning and teaching strategies, trainers should take into account the practical, complex and multi-disciplinary nature of the subject area, as well as their participant's prior knowledge, learning styles and abilities.

Training outcomes can be attained by utilising one or more delivery methods:

Lecture/Tutorial

This is a common method of training involving transfer of information from the trainer to the participants. It is an effective approach to introduce new concepts or information to the learners and also to build upon the existing knowledge. The listener is expected to reflect on the subject and seek clarifications on the doubts.

Demonstration

Demonstration is a very effective training method that involves a trainer showing a participant how to perform a task or activity. Through a visual demonstration, trainers may also explain reasoning behind certain actions or provide supplementary information to help facilitate understanding.

Group Discussions

Brainstorming in which all the members in a group express their ideas, views and opinions on a given topic, is a free flow and exchange of knowledge among the participants and the trainer. The discussion is carried out by the group on the basis of their own experience, perceptions and values. This will facilitate acquiring new knowledge. When everybody is expected to participate in the group discussion, even the introverted persons will also get stimulated and try to articulate their feelings.

The ideas that emerge in the discussions should be noted down and presentations are to be made by the groups. Sometimes consensus needs to be arrived at on a given topic. Group discussions are to be held under the moderation of a leader guided by the trainer. Group discussion technique triggers thinking process, encourages interactions and enhances communication skills.

Role Play

This is a common and very effective method of bringing into the classroom real life situations, which may not otherwise be possible. Participants are made to enact a particular role so as to give a real feel of the roles they may be called upon to play. This enables participants to understand the behaviour of others as well as their own emotions and feelings. The instructor must brief the role players on what is expected of them. The role player may either be given a ready-made script, which they can memorise and enact, or they may be required to develop their own scripts around a given situation. This technique is extremely useful in understanding creative selling techniques and human relations. It can be entertaining and energising and it helps the reserved and less literate to express their feelings.

Simulation Games

When trainees need to become aware of something that they have not been conscious of, simulations can be a useful mechanism. Simulation games are a method based on "here and now" experience shared by all the participants. The games focus on the participation of the trainees and their willingness to share their ideas with others. A "near real life" situation is created providing an opportunity to which they apply themselves by adopting certain behaviour. They then experience the impact of their behaviour on the situation. It is carried out to generate responses and reactions based on the real feelings of the participants, which are subsequently analysed by the trainer.

While use of simulation games can result in very effective learning, it needs considerable trainer competence to analyse the situations.

Individual /Group Exercises

Exercises are often introduced to find out how much the participant has assimilated. This method involves imparting instructions to participants on a particular subject through use of written exercises. In the group exercises, the entire class is divided into small groups, and members are asked to collaborate to arrive at a consensus or solution to a problem.

Case Study

This is a training method that enables the trainer and the participant to experience a real life situation. It may be on account of events in the past or situations in the present, in which there may be one or more problems to be solved and decisions to be taken. The basic objective of a case study is to help participants diagnose, analyse and/or solve a particular problem and to make them internalise the critical inputs delivered in the training. Questions are generally given at the end of the case study to direct the participants and to stimulate their thinking towards possible solutions. Studies may be presented in written or verbal form.

Field Visit

This involves a carefully planned visit or tour to a place of learning or interest. The idea is to give first-hand knowledge by personal observation of field situations, and to relate theory with practice. The emphasis is on observing, exploring, asking questions and understanding. The trainer should remember to brief the participants about what they should observe and about the customs and norms that need to be respected.

Group Presentation

The participants are asked to work in groups and produce the results and findings of their group work to the members of another sub-group. By this method participants get a good picture of each other's views and perceptions on the topic and they are able to compare them with their own point of view. The pooling and sharing of findings enriches the discussion and learning process.

Practice Sessions

This method is of paramount importance for skills training. Participants are provided with an opportunity to practice in a controlled situation what they have learnt. It could be real life or through a make-believe situation.

Games

This is a group process and includes those methods that involve usually fun-based activity, aimed at conveying feelings and experiences, which are everyday in nature, and applying them within the game being played. A game has set rules and regulations, and may or may not include a competitive element. After the game is played, it is essential that the participants be debriefed and their lessons and experiences consolidated by the trainer.

Research

Trainers may require learners to undertake research activities, including online research, to gather information or further understanding about a specific subject area.

Competency Based Assessment (CBA)

Principle of Competency Based Assessment

Competency based assessment is aimed at compiling a list of evidence that shows that a person is competent in a particular unit of competency.

Competencies are gained through a multitude of ways including:

- Training and development programs
- Formal education
- Life experience
- Apprenticeships
- On-the-job experience
- Self-help programs.

All of these together contribute to job competence in a person. Ultimately, assessors and participants work together, through the 'collection of evidence' in determining overall competence.

This evidence can be collected:

- Using different formats
- Using different people
- Collected over a period of time.

The assessor, who is ideally someone with considerable experience in the area being assessed, reviews the evidence and verifies the person as being competent or not.

Flexibility in Assessment

Whilst allocated assessment tools have been identified for this subject, all attempts are made to determine competency and suitable alternate assessment tools may be used, according to the requirements of the participant.

The assessment needs to be equitable for all participants, taking into account their cultural and linguistic needs.

Competency must be proven regardless of:

- Language
- Delivery Method
- Assessment Method.

Assessment Objectives

The assessment tools used for subjects are designed to determine competency against the 'elements of competency' and their associated 'performance criteria'.

The assessment tools are used to identify sufficient:

- a) Knowledge, including underpinning knowledge
- b) Skills
- c) Attitudes

Assessment tools are activities that trainees are required to undertake to prove participant competency in this subject.

All assessments must be completed satisfactorily for participants to obtain competence in this subject. There are no exceptions to this requirement, however, it is possible that in some cases several assessment items may be combined and assessed together.

Types of Assessment

Allocated Assessment Tools

There are a number of assessment tools that are used to determine competency in this subject:

- Work projects
- Written questions
- Oral questions
- Third Party Report
- Observation Checklist.

Instructions on how assessors should conduct these assessment methods are explained in the Assessment Manuals.

Alternative Assessment Tools

Whilst this subject has identified assessment tools, as indicated above, this does not restrict the assessor from using different assessment methods to measure the competency of a participant.

Evidence is simply proof that the assessor gathers to show participants can actually do what they are required to do.

Whilst there is a distinct requirement for participants to demonstrate competency, there are many and diverse sources of evidence available to the assessor.

Ongoing performance at work, as verified by a supervisor or physical evidence, can count towards assessment. Additionally, the assessor can talk to customers or work colleagues to gather evidence about performance.

A range of assessment methods to assess competency include:

- Practical demonstrations
- Practical demonstrations in simulated work conditions
- Problem solving
- Portfolios of evidence
- Critical incident reports
- Journals
- Oral presentations
- Interviews
- Videos
- Visuals: slides, audio tapes
- Case studies
- Log books
- Projects
- Role plays
- Group projects
- Group discussions
- Examinations.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process that gives current industry professionals who do not have a formal qualification, the opportunity to benchmark their extensive skills and experience against the standards set out in each unit of competency/subject.

Also known as a Skills Recognition Audit (SRA), this process is a learning and assessment pathway which encompasses:

- Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)
- Skills auditing
- Gap analysis and training
- Credit transfer.

Assessing competency

As mentioned, assessment is the process of identifying a participant's current knowledge, skills and attitudes sets against all elements of competency within a unit of competency. Traditionally in education, grades or marks were given to participants, dependent on how many questions the participant successfully answered in an assessment tool.

Competency based assessment does not award grades, but simply identifies if the participant has the knowledge, skills and attitudes to undertake the required task to the specified standard.

Therefore, when assessing competency, an assessor has two possible results that can be awarded:

- Pass Competent (PC)
- Not Yet Competent (NYC).

Pass Competent (PC)

If the participant is able to successfully answer or demonstrate what is required, to the expected standards of the performance criteria, they will be deemed as 'Pass Competent' (PC).

The assessor will award a 'Pass Competent' (PC) if they feel the participant has the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes in all assessment tasks for a unit.

Not Yet Competent' (NYC)

If the participant is unable to answer or demonstrate competency to the desired standard, they will be deemed to be 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

This does not mean the participant will need to complete all the assessment tasks again. The focus will be on the specific assessment tasks that were not performed to the expected standards.

The participant may be required to:

- a) Undertake further training or instruction
- b) Undertake the assessment task again until they are deemed to be 'Pass Competent'.

UNIT TITLE: PERFORM CHILD PROTECTION DUTIES RELEVANT TO THE TOURISM INDUSTRY		NOMINAL HOURS: 15
UNIT NUMBER: D1.HRS.CL1.20 D1.HOT.CL1.13D2.TCC.CL1.14
UNIT DESCRIPTOR: This unit deals with skills and knowledge required to understand the issue of child sexual exploitation by tourists and apply simple protective measures which are applicable and appropriate for staff working in the hotel and travel industries.
ELEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE CRITERIA	UNIT VARIABLE AND ASSESSMENT GUIDE
Element 1: Identify the issue of sexual exploitation of children by tourists 1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism) 1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries 1.3 Identify suspicious behaviours that may be exhibited by child sex tourists Element 2: Describe national, regional and international actions to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists 2.1 Locate and become familiar with the United Nations Convention on the Rights (UNCRC) of the Child and the main UN Articles relating to the rights of all children to be safe from sexual exploitation	Unit Variables The Unit Variables provide advice to interpret the scope and context of this unit of competence, allowing for differences between enterprises and workplaces. It relates to the unit as a whole and facilitates holistic assessment. This unit applies to all individuals who are employed in the tourism industry and covers all labour divisions of the hotel and travel industries including: 1. Front Office 2. Housekeeping 3. Food and Beverage Service 4. Food Production 5. Travel Agencies 6. Tour Operation Tourists refers to: • International tourists • Domestic tourists

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists 2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behaviour is observed Element 3: Describe actions that can be taken in the workplace to protect children from sexual exploitation by tourists 3.1 Prepare a list of actions that can be taken by staff working in each labour division of the hotel and travel industries to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists	• Business travellers • Expatriates. Child sex tourism (sexual exploitation of children by tourists) may include: • Procuring children for sexual purposes which includes: ▪ Child sex tourism ▪ Child pornography ▪ Child prostitution ▪ Child sexual abuse. Impact of child sexual exploitation relates to the consequences of child sexual exploitation by tourists and includes, but is not limited, to: • Impact on children ▪ Physical, psychological, social and development issues faced by children who are victims of child sex tourism • Impact on communities ▪ Escalation of community's fear and mistrust of tourists ▪ Diminished reputation of community as a tourism destination resulting in fewer tourists and negative repercussions for local employment and the economy • Impact on the hotel and travel industries ▪ Responsible tourists are discouraged from visiting, therefore reducing jobs and income for staff in the hotel and travel industries. Suspicious behaviours may include: • Tourist taking local children to their hotel room, a restaurant/café/bar, a private place or an excursion/outing • Tourist being very affectionate with local children

	• Tourist touching local children inappropriately • Tourist giving excessive gifts or money to local children • Tourist asking hotel and travel staff where they can locate children for sex • Tourist leaves sexually explicit images of children in their hotel room, or views sexually explicit images of children at an internet café. Child sex tourists relates to: • Tourists who procure children for the purpose of sexual exploitation; there is no stereotype of a child sex tourist. Child sex tourists may be: ▪ Men or women ▪ Highly or poorly educated people ▪ Single or married people ▪ Wealthy travellers or budget backpackers ▪ Professionals including doctors and teachers ▪ Old or young people ▪ Tourists, expatriates, business travellers ▪ People of any nationality. UN Articles relating to the rights of all children to be safe from sexual exploitation includes: • Specific Articles in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child which refer to child sexual abuse including Articles 19, 34 and 36. National, regional and international initiatives include: • Tourism policies and codes • Rules and regulations • Legal provisions, national legislation, extra-territorial legislation

	• Public education campaigns • Training for the hotel and travel industries. Reporting mechanisms may include: • Reporting to line management at the place of employment • Local and national reporting hotline phone numbers • Local authorities • International police • Law enforcement websites • Non-government organizations. Actions should include: • Being vigilant and aware of suspicious behaviour • Reporting suspicious behaviour through the appropriate channels • Establishing and implementing organizational policies to protect children in the hotel and travel industries • Participating in national and regional campaigns to promote greater public awareness and action to prevent child sexual exploitation in tourism destinations • Sharing information about child protection with family, friends and work colleagues. Assessment Guide The following skills and knowledge must be assessed as part of this unit: • Ability to define and explain the issue of child sexual exploitation in tourism destinations • Ability to understand the negative impact of child sexual exploitation in tourism destinations • Awareness of suspicious behaviours which may be exhibited by child sex tourists

	• Awareness of conventions, rules, regulations, policies and laws to protect children from sexual exploitation by tourists • Understanding of actions that can be implemented by staff working in the hotel and travel industries which can prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists. Linkages To Other Units • Clean and prepare rooms for incoming guests • Develop and update local knowledge • Maintain hospitality industry knowledge • Work with colleagues and customers • Work in a socially diverse environment • Develop and update tourism industry knowledge. Critical Aspects of Assessment Evidence of the following is essential: • Understanding of the critical requirement to protect children from sexual exploitation by tourists • Demonstrated ability to articulate those behaviours which could be viewed as suspicious and awareness of appropriate reporting mechanisms • Understanding of rules, regulations, legislation, policies and procedures which relate to the prevention of child sexual exploitation in tourism destinations • Demonstrated ability to outline actions that could be taken by tourism staff in particular labour divisions which could protect children from sexual exploitation by tourists Context of Assessment This unit may be assessed on or off the job • If possible, assessment should relate to the individual's work area or area of responsibility.

	Resource Implications Trainers should seek access to the Child Wise Tourism Trainers' Manual and Child Wise Tourism Participant Handbook, available from all ASEAN National Tourism Organizations (NTOs). Training and assessment to include access to: • Media articles which outline cases of child sex tourism • A condensed version of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child • An outline of the national legislation relating to child sex tourism • Examples of extra-territorial legislation, tourism codes and organizational policies to prevent the sexual exploitation of children in tourism • Workplace standards, procedures, policies, guidelines, tools and equipment. Assessment Methods The following methods may be used to assess competency for this unit: • Oral and written questions • Case studies • Observation of candidate performance • Simulation exercises and role plays • Problem solving • Third party reports completed by a supervisor • Project and assignment work.
--	---

	Key Competencies in this Unit Level 1 = competence to undertake tasks effectively Level 2 = competence to manage tasks Level 3 = competence to use concepts for evaluating
	Key Competencies	Level	Examples
	Collecting, organizing and analysing information	1	Gather information relating to rules, regulations, legislation, policies and procedures to prevent the sexual exploitation of children in tourism
	Communicating ideas and information	2	Utilize appropriate channels for reporting suspicious behaviour to line managers or local authorities
	Planning and organizing activities	2	Support workplace initiatives to draw attention to child protection priorities
	Working with others and in teams	2	Liaise with work colleagues and management to apply child protection measures in the workplace
	Using mathematical ideas and techniques	-
	Solving problems	2	Utilize appropriate channels to report suspicious behaviour to line managers or local authorities
	Using technology	-

Assessment

Assessment for this Unit may include:

- Oral Questions
- Written Questions
- Work Projects
- Workplace observation of practical skills
- Practical Exercises
- Formal report from employer/supervisor.

Class Activity – General discussion Trainer leads a general class discussion on responding to Child Sex Tourism in the workplace asking questions such as: • Are you aware of Child Sex Tourism in your workplace, local area or region? • If yes, how prevalent do you believe Child Sex Tourism is in your workplace, local area or region? • Are you aware of local and international laws regarding Child Sex Tourism? • How important is it for the hotel and travel industries to introduce child protection measures across all areas of the workplace? • Does your workplace currently have policies, procedures and training in place to identify and eliminate Child Sex Tourism from your workplace? If yes, please describe.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

- According to UNICEF, 3 million children are victims of sexual exploitation every year
- Under the UNICEF definition a Child is anyone under the age of 18.

Slide 7

Slide No	Trainer Notes
7.	• Trainer to discuss the above points • Trainer to explain that if the 'definition of a child' is younger than the age of 18 in the country where you operate then you must follow the local definition.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

- Child Sex Tourism refers to the sexual abuse of children by offenders who normally live outside the region where the abuse is occurring
- Offenders could be tourists, expatriates, foreign workers, business travelers or anyone who is in the area for a short-term period.

Slide 8

Slide No	Trainer Notes
8.	• Trainer to refer students to the Training Manual for a more detailed definition of Child Sex Tourism • Trainer to discuss the above points • Activity: It is suggested that the Trainer download and go through with the students the Childwise Free Downloadable Publication, 'Wise Up' to Child Sexual Abuse available at: ▪ http://www.childwise.net/Resources/online-publications.html.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

Why is Child Sex Tourism Growing?

- It has become increasingly difficult for situational and preferential abusers and pedophiles to target children in richer countries due to:
 - closer scrutiny in workplaces
 - police checks and strong laws
 - policies and procedures set up to eliminate situations where child abuse may occur.

Slide 9

Slide No	Trainer Notes
9.	• Trainer to explain that, due to the above reasons, child sex offenders are now looking to less developed countries to access vulnerable children • Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

Why Do Child Sex Tourists Choose Less Developed Countries?

- These countries may not have a strong enforcement system and may be going through a myriad of development issues, with Child Protection being only one of the concerns a country may be facing.

Slide 10

Slide No	Trainer Notes
10.	• Trainer to explain that 'In the past many of these offenders have found themselves in positions of power where they can access children freely but due to a stronger commitment to stamp out child abuse in their own countries, they are now moving to areas where there are vulnerable children and perhaps lax law enforcement and corruption' • Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

Offender Behavior:

- Offenders are frequenting hotels, bars, restaurants and other hospitality and tourism venues where children can be accessed and abused without the threat of being identified, caught and prosecuted.

Slide 11

Slide No	Trainer Notes
11.	Trainer to discuss the above point.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- The internet has played an integral part in the sexual exploitation of children by foreigners, as it has allowed offenders, both situational and preferential, as well as pedophiles:
- to access and share information about destinations where there are vulnerable children and lax law enforcement.

Slide 12

Slide No	Trainer Notes
12.	• Trainer to explain that 'The internet has also allowed these offenders to form networks that keep each other up to date about 'new' destinations where children can be accessed easily as well as allowing offenders to share videos and photographs of abused children' • Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- The internet has allowed offenders to share videos and photographs of abused children
- Many of these images are stored, traded, sold and distributed via offender network .

Slide 13

Slide No	Trainer Notes
13.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- The production and distribution of these images furthers the ongoing exploitation of children and inevitably promotes the visitation by offenders to vulnerable communities
- These offenders are also frequenting Hotel and Travel businesses where they can access children without fear of identification, arrest and prosecution.

Slide 14

Slide No	Trainer Notes

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- Those who make and use pornographic images of children 'perpetuate the exploitation of children by creating a demand for more images'
(Reference: <http://ecpat.net/EI/Programmes/ICT.asp> 16/1/2012)
- The very fact that these images have been made means that vast numbers of children have already been abused
- Once they are distributed and viewed the abuse grows dramatically. It also aids in the offenders becoming 'desensitized' to child abuse.

Slide 15

Slide No	Trainer Notes
15.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- 'The growth of the Internet is creating more commercial opportunities for child exploiters and pornographers and the rapid development of new technologies are facilitating the development and reach of distribution networks' .

(Reference: <http://ecpat.net/EI/Programmes/ICT.asp> 16/1/2012)

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Internet's Influence on CST:

- Inevitably there is a direct link to the making of these images and the abuse of children that occurs in their production, with the growth of child sex tourism and the industry this creates.

Slide 17

Slide No	Trainer Notes
17.	• Please ask the students not to search for child pornography on the internet as an exercise to see if it actually exists and is assessable as this may lead to them being investigated and also acts as a form of voyeurism that perpetuates the existence of child pornography on the internet • Trainer to discuss the above point. Activity: • Trainer to discuss with the class what is it about the internet that has allowed the CSEC and CST to grow.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Growth in International Travel:

- Another area impacting dramatically on the increase in child sexual abuse and child trafficking is the growth in international travel and budget airlines over the past 10 – 15 years
- More people are travelling than ever before and often this is from First World Countries to Third World and Developing Countries.

Slide 18

Slide No	Trainer Notes
18.	• Trainer to discuss the above points • Trainer to explain that due to the above 'This has led to an explosion in the sexual abuse of children, as more and more offenders are accessing vulnerable children in these new budget destinations'.

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Hotel and Travel Industries Can Assist:

- The Hotel and Travel Industries can play a vital part in the elimination of child sex tourism, regardless of location and law enforcement issues.

Slide 19

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The First Step:

- Identify whether child sexual exploitation is a direct issue on the business' premises and grounds or operating locality.

Slide 20

Slide No	Trainer Notes

Slide

1.1 Define the problem of child sexual exploitation of children by tourists (otherwise known as child-sex tourism)

The Second Step:

- Develop policies, procedures and training (in tandem with Child Protection Agencies) for all business operations and staff, that identifies the potential for offending to occur and eliminates it completely from their business.

Slide 21

Slide No	Trainer Notes
21.	Trainer to discuss the above point.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

- Child Sex Tourism is an abhorrent act, that is morally, legally and physically corrupt
- Children who are abused sexually suffer a lifetime of ongoing physical, emotional and social impacts
- Child Sexual abuse is a crime no matter where and when it happens and that it is never ever the child's fault
- The person abusing the child is entirely responsible.

Slide 22

Slide No	Trainer Notes
22.	• Trainer to discuss the above points • Trainer to discuss that children are just that and that the offender has all the power and influence, regardless of the child's behaviour or life situation.

The Impact on Children:

- The negative impacts on children of CST is profound, lifelong and dramatic.

Slide 25

Slide No	Trainer Notes

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact on Children:

- 'The physical violence involved in the sexual exploitation of a child results in injury, pain and fear, while the acute psychological distress of sexual exploitation results in guilt, low self-esteem, depression and, in some instances, suicide'
- 'Children are also more vulnerable to sexually transmitted infections (STI), including HIV/AIDS'.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

- The CSEC is not something that happens and then is forgotten about by the children, their families and communities
- Many CST victims are often tainted by their abuse experiences and many communities are unfortunately unwilling to accept them.

Slide 27

Slide No	Trainer Notes
27.	• Trainer to explain that, due to the above, this inevitably leads to the further breakdown of families and communities • Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

Socially, for the children this can have an ongoing devastating effect such as:

- Difficulty in obtaining education
- Lack of community support and understanding
- A criminal record
- The inability to develop 'normal' friendships
- The inability to interact socially
- The inability to gain worthwhile employment and hence financial independence and stability.

Slide 28

Slide No	Trainer Notes
28.	Trainer to discuss the above points. Activity: • Trainer to discuss each of the above points with the class and ask why each of these may be an issue for an abused child or an adult that was abused as a child.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

- Physically, the health issues many child victims suffer also impact not only on themselves but on their communities
- Communities with limited means and experience have to care for sick children and adults (that as children were abused) and many of these same communities have seen an explosion in HIV and STI rates.

Slide 29

Slide No	Trainer Notes
29.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

- In many communities the discussion of sex, prostitution and particularly child sex is taboo, therefore child victims are often forced to suffer in silence through no fault of their own.

Slide 30

Slide No	Trainer Notes
30.	Trainer to discuss the above points Activity: • Trainer to discuss with class whether the discussion of sex is taboo in their local communities. If so, what ways that are culturally appropriate could be used to discuss the issue of CST and the CSEC?

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

- The impact on communities of the CSEC is negative and substantial, as is the loss of child innocence, the breakdown of morals and social norms, the growth in crime associated with the CSEC and the attraction of these vulnerable communities to offenders and child pornographers becomes apparent.

Slide 31

Slide No	Trainer Notes
31.	Trainer to discuss the above point.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact CST has on Children and Communities:

- Additionally, there is also the lost future opportunities for these child victims to become worthwhile contributing members of a functioning and healthy community.

Slide 32

Slide No	Trainer Notes
32.	• Trainer to discuss the following points based on the above description: ▪ Child victims of sexual abuse need to be protected, supported and provided with ongoing health care and educational opportunities ▪ However, all of these options are costly and can never undo the harm ▪ The best course of action for a community and the Hotel and Travel Industry within those communities is to work towards the elimination of CST before the impacts are felt by all concerned.

Slide

1.2 Describe the impact of child sexual exploitation on children, communities and the hotel and travel industries

The Impact on the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- It is common knowledge amongst the travel and hotel industries that many genuine tourists are not willing to visit areas where child sex tourism (or sex tourism) is openly occurring
- The majority of tourists will avoid such destinations, hotels, restaurants, bars and other businesses that allow such activities to occur

Slide 33

Slide No	Trainer Notes

Direct Impacts on the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- Refer to the Training Manual for a comprehensive list of Impacts.

Slide 34

Slide No	Trainer Notes
34.	• Refer students to the Training Manual for a comprehensive list of Impacts and discuss each point in detail asking the students why they think that each of these points will impact on the Hotel and Travel Industries? • Other Suggestions for the above: include showing the students Trip Advisor Reviews and copies of Newspaper and Magazine articles regarding Child Sex Tourism.

Slide

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

What Do Offenders Look Like?

- The first and most important thing to remember is that there is no stereotypical offender
- They can come from anywhere, be male or female, married or single, wealthy or of a lower socio-economic and educational status
- There is not one physical feature, behavior type or social pattern that will distinguish a child sex tourist.

Slide 36

Slide No	Trainer Notes
36.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

What We Do Know About Offenders:

- 95% of Child Sex Offenders are male and they can be married and have children of their own
- Up to a third of offences are committed by adolescents
- Most sexual offences are committed by men between the ages of 25 – 40 years.

Slide 37

Slide No	Trainer Notes
37.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

What We Do Know About Offenders:

- There are three internationally recognized types of offenders:

- Situational Child Sex Tourist
- Preferential Child Sex Tourist
- Pedophile .

(see the Glossary at the beginning of the Training Manual for a description of each offender type)

Slide 38

Slide No	Trainer Notes
38.	Trainer to discuss the above points and refer class to the Glossary of the Training Manual for a description of each offender type.

Slide

The Variables for Offending:

- Refer to the Training Manual for a Comprehensive List.

Slide 39

Slide No	Trainer Notes
39.	• Trainer to refer class to the Training Manual for a description of each offender type • Trainer to discuss each Variable and ask the class 'why do each of these variables impact on CST's growth?'

Slide

Offenders Modus Operandi:

- Refer to the Training Manual for a comprehensive list.

Slide 40

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

Suspicious Behavior that can be Identified by the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- While there is no stereotypical offender type, approaches to staff, contractors, suppliers and stakeholders of The Hotel and Travel Industries by potential offenders can be counteracted with:
 - Child Safe policies and procedures
 - staff training
 - monitoring and reporting mechanisms.

Slide 41

Slide No	Trainer Notes
41.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

Suspicious Behavior that can be Identified by the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- Remember that Reception Staff, Bartenders, Housekeeping Staff, Waiters and Waitresses, Porters, Doormen, Security, Tour Guides, Information Staff, Child Activity Staff, Child Minders, Swimming Pool and Beach Lifeguards, Theme Park Staff, Bus Drivers and Taxi Drivers are generally the people that those looking to procure children for sex will come into contact with.

Slide 42

Slide No	Trainer Notes
42.	The Trainer could ask the class if there are any other positions in the Hotel and Travel Industries that are not included on the list above.

Slide

1.3 Identify suspicious behaviors that may be exhibited by child sex tourists

Opportunities for the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- There is a real opportunity here for the Hotel and Travel Industries which are Child Safe businesses to stop the offending at its source and before it can progress any further and damage vulnerable children, communities and businesses.

Slide 43

Slide No	Trainer Notes
43.	Trainer to discuss the above point.

Slide

2.1 Locate and become familiar with the United Nations Convention on the Rights (UNCRC) of the Child and the main UN Articles relating to the rights of all children to be safe from sexual exploitation

- The UNCRC is an all-encompassing Child Rights document that has been enshrined in law by many of the 191 ratifying countries
- This means that Child Protection is a legal obligation in most countries of the world
- Even more so it is a moral obligation to protect children not only by governments but by citizens, residents, businesses and employees. In fact everyone has this obligation.

Slide 44

Slide No	Trainer Notes
44.	• The Trainer should familiarize themselves with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, particularly Articles 19, 27, 31, 32, 34 and 35 and refer students to the Training Manual for a detailed breakdown of each Article • The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child can be found here: ▪ http://www.crin.org/docs/resources/treaties/uncrc.asp#Thirty_four. Activity 2: • If time permits it is suggested that the Trainer also take the students through each of the above suggested articles and relate the importance of the Hotel and Tourism Industries adhering to these laws in their workplaces, business operations and dealings with customers.

Slide

2.1 Locate and become familiar with the United Nations Convention on the Rights (UNCRC) of the Child and the main UN Articles relating to the rights of all children to be safe from sexual exploitation

Understanding the UNCRC Articles and Interpreting them for the Hotel and Travel Industries:

- The Hotel and Travel Industries can take important steps to adhere to the UNCRC:
 - through their Child Safe business operations
 - policies, procedures and training
 - monitoring and reporting functions
 - by working with local child protection agencies such as ECPAT, their local or regional NTA or NTO and internationally recognized NGOs to incorporate the above articles into their business practices.

Slide 45

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

- There has been a huge effort over the last 20 years by governments, NGOs and various International Tourism and Hotel Organizations to work towards ending of CST
- In many cases these efforts have been successful, with often an industry wide adoption of policies and procedures that educate, train, provide assistance and clear steps for an organization or business to follow to be considered 'Child Safe'.

Slide 46

Slide NoTrainer Notes*46.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

- NGOs such as ECPAT and Childwise have worked tirelessly to develop training programs for Hotel and Tourism Industry operators and stakeholders, which are of great relevance and assistance to businesses to become and remain 'Child Safe'.

Slide 47

Slide No	Trainer Notes
47.	Trainer to discuss above points.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Extraterritorial Laws:

- The development of Extraterritorial Laws in over 40 countries is also acting as a deterrent, although to date prosecutions have been few and the laws are somewhat difficult to implement as countries must work together and form agreements to make them work successfully.

Slide 48

Slide No	Trainer Notes
48.	• It is suggested that the Trainer show students the following website: ▪ http://www.thefuturegroup.org/youwillbecaught/laws.html • This is a very good resource website that contains information on which countries have Extraterritorial Laws, has a 'Report an Offender' page, a list of international Partners who are fighting the CSEC, information on Health Issues and on Offenders who have been caught and prosecuted. Activity: • Break the students into groups of 3 – 4 and then if internet access is available give each of the groups one of the examples listed in the Training Manual and ask them to research this particular Global Effort and to report back to the class on their findings • If internet access is unavailable the Trainer can download information from these sites and prepare information packs on each of these Global Efforts to give to the students to complete this activity • 20 - 30 Minutes should be more than enough time for the Research part of this Activity.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Problems:

- What must be recognized is that while many laws and organizational policies exist, if local law enforcement is weak, under-resourced, corrupt or unwilling to act then no amount of international agreements and laws will end the CSEC.

Slide 49

Slide No	Trainer Notes
49.	Trainer to discuss the above point.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Why the Hotel and Travel Industries Must Act:

- Hotel and Travel Industry businesses must act to stop the CSEC as they are at the forefront of where CST is occurring on a physical level. By taking a strong business stance against the CSEC, the Hotel and Travel Industry can have a huge impact on helping to eliminate the CSEC from tourism destinations.

50

Slide No	Trainer Notes
50.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Why the Hotel and Travel Industries Must Act:

- If offenders have nowhere to go to offend or places to procure vulnerable children this will dramatically decrease the current levels of CST.

51

Slide No	Trainer Notes
51.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Local, National and Regional Support:

- Refer to the Training Manual for a comprehensive breakdown of current Training Programs and Support Mechanisms.

Slide 52

Slide No	Trainer Notes
52.	Trainer Notes and Activity: • Trainer to refer class to the Training Manual and go through each of the Support examples shown • The Trainer could research local, national and regional organizations and prepare a Handout Pack of this information for students.

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

- Childwise and ECPAT have produced all sorts of awareness raising items such as t-shirts, videos, brochures, stickers, travel wallets, signage for taxis, hotels, buses, trains and other forms of local transportation
- Additionally, ECPAT has many freely available publications on its website that are in multiple languages and are of invaluable assistance in the development of a Child Safe business. They can be found at:
http://www.ecpat.net/EI/EI_publications.asp.

Slide 53

Slide No	Trainer Notes
53.	Trainer Notes and Activity: • Trainer to discuss the above points • Trainer could access some of the local awareness raising items available and distribute to the class, asking the class if they had seen them anywhere before and where would be the best place to locate them in their workplaces?

Slide

2.2 Examine national, regional and international initiatives to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

What Can the Hotel and Travel Industries Do to Assist in Awareness Raising?

- Refer to the Training Manual and go through each point as a class.

Slide 54

Slide No	Trainer Notes
54.	Trainer to refer students to the Training Manual and go through each point with the class asking them do their businesses already do these things? If not could they?

Slide

2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behavior is observed

- Perhaps the biggest disincentive to child sex offenders, is the fear of being reported, caught, prosecuted and jailed
- At the moment we know most child sex offenders act with impunity either with the direct support of others or the indirect support of those that turn away from what is happening to maintain their business earnings and customer base.

Slide 55

Slide No	Trainer Notes
55.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behavior is observed

- There is also the general disbelief that this kind of thing is actually happening and that there are people out there who do this
- Child Sex Tourism is a reality and is growing larger
- For the Hotel and Travel Industries to be Child Safe, they must realize that Child Sex Tourism is real and damaging to children, communities and businesses.

Slide 56

Slide No	Trainer Notes
56.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behavior is observed

Accepting the Facts of CST:

- With this recognition comes the realization that we are all responsible for the elimination of CST
- Therefore, the Hotel and Travel Industries can play a vital part in stopping CST and the CSEC.

Slide 57

Slide No	Trainer Notes
57.	Trainer to discuss the above points.

Slide

2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behavior is observed

What Happens Even if There is a Child Safe Industry and Abuse Still Occurs?

- If policies, procedures, staff training and networking with other businesses fails to stop an offender, the next step is to report offenders directly to the relevant authorities and Child Protection Agencies that can act on your behalf.

Slide 58

Slide No

Slide

2.3 Identify reporting mechanisms if suspicious behavior is observed

Reporting Mechanisms:

- There are many reporting mechanisms available to the Hotel and Travel Industries
- Even if you are a Child Safe business, this may not stop the offending, therefore you must act and these offenders must be reported, caught, prosecuted and jailed
- This will aid in the elimination of CST from your business and region and will deter other offenders immediately.

Slide 59

Slide No	Trainer Notes

Slide

3.1 Prepare a list of actions that can be taken by staff working in each labor division of the hotel and travel industries to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Why is it Important to Be Child Safe?

- Firstly, to protect the most vulnerable members of our communities, children
- Secondly, it is a Legal and Moral requirement
- Therefore, the Hotel and Travel Industries should develop a 'zero policy' regarding the CSEC and CST and make this one of their main aims.

Slide 63

- The Hotel and Travel Industries must implement ECPAT's 'Code of Conduct for the Protection of Children from Sexual Exploitation in Travel and Tourism' into their Staff Training and Induction Programs and directly into their operating procedures
<http://www.thecode.org/>.

Slide 65

Slide No	Trainer Notes
65.	• If you have internet access go to the website (if no internet access download and print copies of the Code of Conduct to give to students): ▪ http://www.thecode.org/ • Take the students through 'The Code of Conduct for the Protection of Children from Sexual Exploitation in Travel and Tourism' discussing each dot point and the benefits of adopting this point into the workplace.

Slide

3.1 Prepare a list of actions that can be taken by staff working in each labor division of the hotel and travel industries to prevent the sexual exploitation of children by tourists

Why is it Important to Be Child Safe?

- The Child Safe message is also stating to staff and customers that you operate legally, morally, sustainably and responsibly. It shows that you are providing a return to your local community, not only via staff hiring and use of local goods and services but by taking a stand and protecting children from offenders and exploitation.
