Competency Based Assessment (CBA) – An Introduction for Assessors

Assessment is the process of identifying a participant's current knowledge, skills and attitudes sets against all elements of competency within a unit of competency.

Suggested Assessment Methods

For each unit of competency a number of assessment tools have been identified including:

- Work Projects
- Oral Questions
- Written Questions
- Third Party Statements
- Observation Checklists.

Instructions and Evidence Recording Sheets have been identified in this Assessment Manual for use by Assessors.

Alternative Assessment Methods

Whilst the above mentioned assessment methods are suggested assessment methods, the assessor may use an alternate method of assessment taking into account:

- a) The nature of the unit
- b) The strengths of participants
- c) The number of participants in the class
- d) Time required to complete assessments
- e) Time dedicated to assessment
- f) Equipment and resources required.

Alternate assessment methods include:

- Practical demonstrations
- Practical demonstrations in simulated work conditions
- Problem solving
- Portfolios of evidence
- Critical incident reports
- Journals
- Oral presentations
- Interviews
- Videos
- Visuals/slides/audiotapes

- Case studies
- Log books
- Projects and Role plays
- Group projects
- Recognition of Prior Learning.

Whilst there is no specific instruction or evidence collection documents for all the alternative assessment methods, assessors can record competency in the 'Other' section within the 'Competency Recording Sheet'.

Selection of Assessment Methods

Each assessor will determine the combination of Assessment Methods to be used to determine Competency for each Competency Unit on a student by student basis.

'Sufficient' evidence to support the 'Pass Competent'/'Not Yet Competent' decision must be captured.

In practice this means a minimum of 2 – 3 Assessment Methods for each candidate for each Competency Element is suggested.

At least one method should provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence.

The following assessment methods deemed to provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence include:

- Practical Work Projects
- Third Party Statement
- Observation Checklist.

Assessing Competency

Competency based assessment does not award grades, but simply identifies if the participant has the knowledge, skills and attitudes to undertake the required task to the specified standard.

Therefore, when assessing competency, an assessor has two possible results that can be awarded:

- 'Pass Competent' (PC)
- 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

Pass Competent (PC)

If the participant is able to successfully answer or demonstrate what is required, to the expected standards of the performance criteria, they will be deemed as 'Pass Competent' (PC).

The assessor will award a 'Pass Competent' (PC) if they feel the participant has the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes in all assessment tasks for a unit.

Not Yet Competent' (NYC)

If the participant is unable to answer or demonstrate competency to the desired standard, they will be deemed to be 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

This does not mean the participant will need to complete all the assessment tasks again. The focus will be on the specific assessment tasks that were not performed to the expected standards.

The participant may be required to:

- a) Undertake further training or instruction
- b) Undertake the assessment task again until they are deemed to be 'Pass Competent'.

Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System

The 'Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System', also known as the 'RQFSRS' is the overriding educational framework for the ASEAN region.

The purpose of this framework is to provide:

- A standardised teaching and assessment framework
- Mutual recognition of participant achievement across the ASEAN region. This includes achievement in individual Units of Competency or qualifications as a whole.

The role of the 'RQFSRS' is to provide, ensure and maintain 'quality assurance' across all countries and educational providers across the ASEAN region

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process that gives current industry professionals who do not have a formal qualification, the opportunity to benchmark their extensive skills and experience against the standards set out in each unit of competency/subject.

This process is a learning and assessment pathway which encompasses:

- Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)
- Skills auditing
- Gap analysis and training
- Credit transfer.

Code of Practice for Assessors

This Code of Practice provides:

- Assessors with direction on the standard of practice expected of them
- Candidates with assurance of the standards of practice expected of assessors
- Employers with assurance of the standards maintained in the conduct of assessment.

The Code detailed below is based on the International Code of Ethics and Practice (The National Council for Measurement in Education [NCME]):

- The differing needs and requirements of the person being assessed, the local enterprise and/or industry are identified and handled with sensitivity
- Potential forms of conflict of interest in the assessment process and/or outcomes are identified and appropriate referrals are made, if necessary
- All forms of harassment are avoided throughout the planning, conducting, reviewing and reporting of the assessment outcomes

- The rights of the candidate are protected during and after the assessment
- Personal and interpersonal factors that are not relevant to the assessment of competency must not influence the assessment outcomes
- The candidate is made aware of rights and process of appeal
- Evidence that is gathered during the assessment is verified for validity, reliability, authenticity, sufficiency and currency
- Assessment decisions are based on available evidence that can be produced and verified by another assessor
- Assessments are conducted within the boundaries of the assessment system policies and procedures
- Formal agreement is obtained from both the candidate and the assessor that the assessment was carried out in accordance with agreed procedures
- The candidate is informed of all assessment reporting processes prior to the assessment
- The candidate is informed of all known potential consequences of decisions arising from an assessment, prior to the assessment
- Confidentiality is maintained regarding assessment results
- The assessment results are used consistently with the purposes explained to the candidate
- Opportunities are created for technical assistance in planning, conducting and reviewing assessment procedures and outcomes.

- This Competency Recording Sheet is located at the end of the Assessment Plan
- It is the overriding document to record competency
- The Assessor may vary the Competency Recording Sheet to accommodate practical and individual candidate and/or workplace needs
- Assessor must place a tick (✓) in the 'Assessment Method' columns to identify the methods of assessment to be used for each candidate
- Multiple Competency Elements/Performance Criteria may be assessed at the one time, where appropriate
- The assessor and participant should sign and date the Competency Recording Sheet, when all forms of evidence and assessment have been completed
- The assessor may provide and feedback or clarify questions which the participant may have in regards to the assessment grade or findings
- All documents used to capture evidence must be retained, and attached to the Competency Recording Sheet for each candidate for each Competency Unit.

Instructions for Different Assessment Methods

Specifications for Work Project Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of work projects.

The work projects identified in the Training Manuals involve a range of tasks, to be performed at the discretion of the Assessor.

Work project tasks can be completed through any form of assessment as identified in the Trainer and Trainee Manuals and stated at the start of this section.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Review the Work Projects at the end of each 'Element of Competency' in the Trainee Manual to ensure you understand the content and what is expected
- Prepare sufficient resources for the completion of work activities including:
 - Time – whether in scheduled delivery hours or suggested time participants to spend outside of class hours
 - Resources – this may involve technical equipment, computer, internet access, stationery and other supplementary materials and documents
- Prepare assessment location (if done in class) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Work Projects assessment to candidate, at the start of each Element of Competency. This ensures that participants are aware of what is expected and can collate information as delivery takes place

- Assessors can use the following phrase as a guide (where an 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
 "At the end of each Element of Competency there are Work Projects which must be completed. These projects require different tasks that must be completed.
 These work projects are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X:
- You are required to complete these activities:
 - Using the 'X' method of assessment*
 - At 'X' location*
 - You will have 'X time period' for this assessment*
 - You are required to compile information in a format that you feel is appropriate to the assessment
 - Do you have any questions about this assessment?"
- Commence Work Project assessment:
 - The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
 - Participants complete work projects in the most appropriate format
 - Participants must submit Work Project evidence to the assessor before the scheduled due date
- Assessor must assess the participant's evidence against the competency standards specified in each Element of Competency and their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has provided evidence to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Oral Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of oral questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines.

- Prepare Assessment Record for Oral Questioning. One record for each candidate:
 - Enter Student name
 - Enter Assessor name
 - Enter Location
- Familiarise self with Questions to be asked
- Prepare assessment location (table and chairs) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Oral Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
"These oral questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability and I will record whether or not you have answered correctly.

We have 60 minutes for this assessment.

- I will give you feedback at the end of the assessment
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?”
- Commence Oral Questioning assessment:
 - Complete Assessment Record for the Oral Questioning by:
 - a) Ticking PC or NYC, as appropriate
 - b) Entering ‘Remarks’ as required
 - c) Completing Oral Questioning within 60 minutes
- Complete Oral Questioning and provide feedback to candidate
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Written Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of written questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Familiarise self with Questions and Answers provided
- Print and distribute copies of ‘Written Questions’ for participants. Ideally this should take place with adequate time for participants to answer all questions before the expected due date
- Explain Written Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a ‘X’ is identified, please input appropriate information):

“These written questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability.

You may refer to your subject materials, however where possible try to utilise your existing knowledge when answering questions.

Where you are unsure of questions, please ask the Assessor for further instruction. This may be answering the question orally or asking the assessor to redefine the question.

We have X time for this assessment:

- The due date for completion of this assessment is X
- On this date you must forward the completed questions to the assessor by X time on the date of X
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?”
- The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
- Participants may record written answers (where possible)
- Participants must submit the written answers to the assessor before the scheduled due date

- Assessor must assess the participant's written answers against the model answers provided as a guide, or their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has answered the questions to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Observation Checklist

These specifications apply to the use of the Observation Checklist in determining competency for candidates.

Only an approved assessor is authorised to complete the Observation Checklist.

The assessor is required to observe the participant, ideally in a simulated environment or their practical workplace setting and record their performance (or otherwise) of the competencies listed on the Observation Checklist for the Competency Unit.

To complete the Observation Checklist the Assessor must:

- Insert name of candidate
- Insert assessor name
- Insert identify of location where observations are being undertaken
- Insert date/s of observations – may be single date or multiple dates
- Place a tick in either the 'Yes' or 'No' box for each listed Performance Criteria to indicate the candidate has demonstrated/not demonstrated that skill
- Provide written (and verbal) feedback to candidate – as/if appropriate
- Sign and date the form
- Present form to candidate for them to sign and date
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Observation Checklist.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass/Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the participant.

Specifications for Third Party Statement

These specifications relate to the use of a relevant workplace person to assist in determining competency for candidates.

The Third Party Statement is to be supplied by the assessor to a person in the workplace who supervises and/or works closely with the participant.

This may be their Supervisor, the venue manager, the Department Manager or similar.

The Third Party Statement asks the Supervisor to record what they believe to be the competencies of the participant based on their workplace experience of the participant. This experience may be gained through observation of their workplace performance, feedback from others, inspection of candidate's work etc.

A meeting must take place between the Assessor and the Third Party to explain and demonstrate the use of the Third Party Statement.

To complete the Third Party Verification Statement the Assessor must:

- Insert candidate name
- Insert name and contact details of the Third Party
- Tick the box to indicate the relationship of the Third Party to the candidate
- Present the partially completed form to the Third Party for them to finalise
- Collect the completed form from the Third Party
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Third Party Statement.

The Third Party must:

- Record their belief regarding candidate ability/competency as either:
 - Pass/Competent = Yes
 - Not Yet Competent = No
 - Unsure about whether candidate is competent or not = Not Sure
- Meet briefly with the assessor to discuss and/or clarify the form.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass/Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the candidate.

A separate Third Party Statement is required for each Competency Unit undertaken by the candidate.

Answers to written questions

Roster staff –D1.HML.CL10.16 D1.HRM.CL9.09 D2.TRM.CL9.21

The following are model answers only – Trainers/Assessors must use discretion when determining whether or not an answer provided by a Student is acceptable or not.

1. In your own words define what a roster is.

Answer should address:

A roster is a plan that organises staff, indicating:

- Names of staff who are to work; Days of work – usually with dates; Start times; Break times; Finish times; Where they are to work; Their role.

It also gives information as to staff movements, such as:

- Who is on annual leave; Who is on sick leave; Who is undertaking training.

They are documents ensuring the right people, in the right number, are employed at the right places at the right time.

2. List five reasons why organisations have and use rosters.

To:

- Organise staff
- Balance experienced staff
- Communicate with staff
- Control costs
- Help staff arrange their free time
- Meet legal obligations.

3. On what three bases do organisations commonly prepare rosters?

- An individual department
- A whole enterprise
- A specific project.

4. Identify three examples of pre-requisite requirements that those with responsibility for preparing rosters must have.

- Authority to act in this regard
- Good knowledge of employment instruments in use
- Good operating knowledge of the business
- Good knowledge of staff available/in the business
- Thorough knowledge of all factors impacting on staffing for the business.

5. List three persons/bodies that may be allocated the job of developing rosters.

- Owner
- Manager
- Roster committee.

6. In general terms explain the impact of the labour budget on the preparation of rosters.

Rosters must be developed so their cost allows them to fit within the parameters prescribed by the labour budget.

7. What is the formula for calculating 'labour cost percentage'?

Labour cost percentage is calculated by dividing the labour cost by the sales, and multiplying by 100 over 1. For example:

$$\frac{\text{Labour cost}}{\text{Sales}} \times \frac{100}{1}$$

8. What are the two basic options for formats when presenting a roster?

- Paper-based format
- Electronic format.

9. List five factors which impact on the selection of staff for rosters.

- Experience
- Gender
- Age
- Skills
- Language
- Service delivery capacity
- Leave entitlements
- Special requests from staff.

10. What are the three common classifications of employment instruments?

- Awards
- Agreements
- Contracts.

11. What are the three basic classifications of staff and how do they differ?

Answer should address:

- Permanent staff work 38, 40 or nominated similar hours/week or hours may be worked in a variety of different ways
- Part-time staff will work between certain hourly and daily weekly limits (say, no less than 16 hours/week and no more than 20 hours/week, no more than four/five days/week) with each roster period comprising at least four hours
- Casual employees rostered/paid at hourly rate and engaged for minimum hours per engagement/shift.

12. Identify three ways someone who prepares and costs a roster can determine the applicable pay rates, entitlements and allowances for employees on the roster.

- Read employment instrument relevant to each person
- Speak with other staff with experience rostering staff
- Speak with relevant others – Managers, HR/payroll staff, Employment officials, Trade unions.

13. Name four types of leave staff may be entitled to.

- Annual leave
- Sick leave
- Bereavement leave
- Carer leave
- Parental leave
- Jury service
- Study leave
- Leave without pay.

14. Identify and describe requirements which may apply to two types of leave.

No model answer.

15. Give four reasons it is necessary for those who develop rosters to know about breaks and when they need to be taken.

In order to:

- Schedule them at the appropriate times
- Avoid situations where penalty payments are incurred as a result of staff not being able to take a break when they are entitled to
- Keep staff happy, fed and rested
- Comply with IR agreements/requirements
- Demonstrate respect and concern for staff.

16. Describe three general requirements which apply to meal breaks for rostered staff.

- All staff (full-time, part-time and casual) are usually eligible for breaks
- Staff need to have worked a nominated amount of time – say five hours
- Staff are then eligible to be given an amount of time to eat a meal – say 30 minutes
- The meal break time is 'unpaid' – meaning it does not count as part of the working day/hours worked for the day.

17. Explain the concept of 'allowances' to which staff may be entitled.

Answer should address:

- Allowances are cash payments made to eligible staff
- They are paid for situations as prescribed in relevant employment instruments, with management always having the right to identify and pay additional allowances at their discretion
- Allowances are usually paid every pay day as part of the weekly, fortnightly or monthly wages paid to employees
- Very few businesses pay allowances as a lump sum payment
- Proof of eligibility is required before some allowances are paid.

18. Identify and describe three types of allowances to which staff may be entitled.

Answer may relate to the following:

- Meal allowances – given to staff entitled to a meal break while at work
- First aid allowances – to holders of first aid certificates/qualifications
- Clothing allowances – paid to employees required to wear certain clothes/uniforms and/or to present themselves to a certain standard
- Tools and equipment allowances – for using personal tools/equipment for the purpose of work
- Travel allowances – may be paid to employees required to start work before public transport is running, finish work after public transport has stopped running, where employees attend training or an event/conference on behalf of the organisation
- Shift allowances – paid to staff if they work nominated shifts such as early shifts or late shifts or split shifts
- Higher duties allowances – where an employee is required to perform duties above what they normally do, they may be eligible to be paid extra money in the form of a higher-duties allowance
- Per Diem allowance – an amount paid to eligible workers on a daily basis to cover expenses such as travel, accommodation and food when they attend a conference, seminar or other event on behalf of the organisation they work for.

19. Identify three ways to identify legislated requirements that apply to staff rosters.

- Contacting relevant government department/agency and speaking to Officers/Inspectors
- Visiting websites of departments/agencies and reading the information, advices, fact sheets and similar they make available
- Obtaining relevant documents – Fact sheets, Posters, Forms, Reports, Copies of legislation
- Speaking to other persons – Managers and owners of the business, those with previous experience preparing rosters, hiring staff and/or paying wages, Representatives from peak industry bodies.

20. Give two examples of provisions which may apply in the event there is a need to stand down staff who are rostered to work.

Where stand down provisions apply there can be requirements attaching to them, such as:

- A minimum amount of notice advising of the intention by management to stand employees down may need to be given – for example, four hours' notice
- The notification of intention to stand employees down may need to be provided in specified way/manner – for example, (1) It may need to be given in writing, (2) It may need to be posted in a nominated location so it is readily accessible and visible to staff who are impacted by it
- If employees who are subjected to stand down begin their rostered working day at the time stated on the roster they may be entitled to being paid for a nominated number of hours work – for example, they may need to be paid at least four hours, and if they are asked to attend work twice on the same day they must receive a full day's pay.

21. List two obligations on those who develop rosters in relation the return to work of injured staff.

Those who prepare rosters need to ensure:

- Injured/sick workers are not forced to return to work until they are well enough/fit enough to work – forcing employees to return before they are fit/well can result in legal action for breach of Duty of Care and/or certain aspects of relevant IR/employment legislation
- Workers who have been sick/injured are assisted in their efforts to return to work – this may mean a staff member who wants to return to work is:
 - Rostered to work fewer hours than normal – to allow them to gradually become 'work ready'
 - Allocated work/duties suitable to their decreased capacity – instead of expecting them to return to normal duties which may be too stressful, demanding or tiring.

22. Name ten points to note which are critical for those with responsibility for creating staffing rosters to meet operational demands of a department, section or organisation.

- Allocate adequate time for the process
- Avoid distractions while preparing the roster
- Be sure of the 'rules' which apply to rosters as they apply to the roster being prepared
- Gather all information relevant to the roster period
- Ensure documentation which may be required is readily available
- Use technology to assist in the process
- Work in a structured manner
- Check roster covers all required opening times, services required, breaks, legal obligations and required internal mixes of staff qualities
- Use best mix of permanent, part-time and casual staff
- Consider reducing staff levels when penalty rates apply
- Stay alert to the potential/need to combine duties
- Be prepared to work themselves as/when required
- Pay small amounts of overtime rather than employee another person
- Stagger starts, finishes and breaks.

23. List three examples of required SOPs which may apply before a roster can be distributed to staff.

- Prove the budget complies with budget restrictions – through development of a costed roster
- Liaise with other supervisors/managers – to share intentions and communicate proposed staffing arrangements
- Submit the roster for approval – to owner, manager or administration
- File a copy of the roster and supporting documentation – for future reference.

24. Identify two ways rosters may be communicated to staff.

- Distributing hard copies to individual staff – by hand at staff meetings/briefings and/or with wages/pay advice
- E-mailing electronic copies to staff – either at their work-based e-mail address or to their private home e-mail.

25. What documents form the basis of checks to verify time worked for payment of wages for employees?

Timesheets/time cards and the roster for the period in question.

26. Describe three procedures inherent in checking and approving claims by staff for payment of wages.

- Validating timesheets and/or time-clock cards – by:
 - Comparing the times claimed against the hours listed on the roster for each worker and following up discrepancies
 - Using personal knowledge of hours worked by staff on the basis of observation and information to confirm hours claimed
- Ensuring all relevant/required details have been included on the timesheets – by individual workers
- Counter-signing timesheets – which provides the authorisation necessary for Payroll/HR to process/pay the claim
- Forwarding approved time sheets with appropriate signatures for payment
- Clarifying queries from payroll officers, human resources department and/or accounts department.

27. What two critical issues apply to the maintaining of staff records that impact on roster preparation?

- Security, privacy and confidentiality
 - Updating them as the need arises.
