Competency Based Assessment (CBA) – An Introduction for Assessors

Assessment is the process of identifying a participant's current knowledge, skills and attitudes sets against all elements of competency within a unit of competency.

Suggested Assessment Methods

For each unit of competency a number of assessment tools have been identified including:

- Work Projects
- Oral Questions
- Written Questions
- Third Party Statements
- Observation Checklists.

Instructions and Evidence Recording Sheets have been identified in this Assessment Manual for use by Assessors.

Alternative Assessment Methods

Whilst the above mentioned assessment methods are suggested assessment methods, the assessor may use an alternate method of assessment taking into account:

- a) The nature of the unit
- b) The strengths of participants
- c) The number of participants in the class
- d) Time required to complete assessments
- e) Time dedicated to assessment
- f) Equipment and resources required.

Alternate assessment methods include:

- Practical demonstrations
- Practical demonstrations in simulated work conditions
- Problem solving
- Portfolios of evidence
- Critical incident reports
- Journals
- Oral presentations
- Interviews
- Videos
- Visuals/slides/audiotapes

- Case studies
- Log books
- Projects and Role plays
- Group projects
- Recognition of Prior Learning.

Whilst there is no specific instruction or evidence collection documents for all the alternative assessment methods, assessors can record competency in the 'Other' section within the 'Competency Recording Sheet'.

Selection of Assessment Methods

Each assessor will determine the combination of Assessment Methods to be used to determine Competency for each Competency Unit on a student by student basis.

'Sufficient' evidence to support the 'Pass Competent'/'Not Yet Competent' decision must be captured.

In practice this means a minimum of 2 – 3 Assessment Methods for each candidate for each Competency Element is suggested.

At least one method should provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence.

The following assessment methods deemed to provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence include:

- Practical Work Projects
- Third Party Statement
- Observation Checklist.

Assessing Competency

Competency based assessment does not award grades, but simply identifies if the participant has the knowledge, skills and attitudes to undertake the required task to the specified standard.

Therefore, when assessing competency, an assessor has two possible results that can be awarded:

- 'Pass Competent' (PC)
- 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

Pass Competent (PC)

If the participant is able to successfully answer or demonstrate what is required, to the expected standards of the performance criteria, they will be deemed as 'Pass Competent' (PC).

The assessor will award a 'Pass Competent' (PC) if they feel the participant has the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes in all assessment tasks for a unit.

Not Yet Competent' (NYC)

If the participant is unable to answer or demonstrate competency to the desired standard, they will be deemed to be 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

This does not mean the participant will need to complete all the assessment tasks again. The focus will be on the specific assessment tasks that were not performed to the expected standards.

The participant may be required to:

- a) Undertake further training or instruction
- b) Undertake the assessment task again until they are deemed to be 'Pass Competent'.

Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System

The 'Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System', also known as the 'RQFSRS' is the overriding educational framework for the ASEAN region.

The purpose of this framework is to provide:

- A standardised teaching and assessment framework
- Mutual recognition of participant achievement across the ASEAN region. This includes achievement in individual Units of Competency or qualifications as a whole.

The role of the 'RQFSRS' is to provide, ensure and maintain 'quality assurance' across all countries and educational providers across the ASEAN region.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process that gives current industry professionals who do not have a formal qualification, the opportunity to benchmark their extensive skills and experience against the standards set out in each unit of competency/subject.

This process is a learning and assessment pathway which encompasses:

- Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)
- Skills auditing
- Gap analysis and training
- Credit transfer.

Code of Practice for Assessors

This Code of Practice provides:

- Assessors with direction on the standard of practice expected of them
- Candidates with assurance of the standards of practice expected of assessors
- Employers with assurance of the standards maintained in the conduct of assessment.

The Code detailed below is based on the International Code of Ethics and Practice (The National Council for Measurement in Education [NCME]):

- The differing needs and requirements of the person being assessed, the local enterprise and/or industry are identified and handled with sensitivity
- Potential forms of conflict of interest in the assessment process and/or outcomes are identified and appropriate referrals are made, if necessary
- All forms of harassment are avoided throughout the planning, conducting, reviewing and reporting of the assessment outcomes

- The rights of the candidate are protected during and after the assessment
- Personal and interpersonal factors that are not relevant to the assessment of competency must not influence the assessment outcomes
- The candidate is made aware of rights and process of appeal
- Evidence that is gathered during the assessment is verified for validity, reliability, authenticity, sufficiency and currency
- Assessment decisions are based on available evidence that can be produced and verified by another assessor
- Assessments are conducted within the boundaries of the assessment system policies and procedures
- Formal agreement is obtained from both the candidate and the assessor that the assessment was carried out in accordance with agreed procedures
- The candidate is informed of all assessment reporting processes prior to the assessment
- The candidate is informed of all known potential consequences of decisions arising from an assessment, prior to the assessment
- Confidentiality is maintained regarding assessment results
- The assessment results are used consistently with the purposes explained to the candidate
- Opportunities are created for technical assistance in planning, conducting and reviewing assessment procedures and outcomes.

Instructions and Checklist for Assessors

Instructions

General instructions for the assessment:

- Assessment should be conducted at a scheduled time that has been notified to the candidate
- Facilitators must ensure participants are made aware of the need to complete assessments and attend assessment sessions
- If a participant is unable to attend a scheduled session, they must make arrangements with the Assessor to undertake the assessment at an alternative time
- At the end of the assessment the Assessor must give feedback and advise the participant on their PC/NYC status
- Complete the relevant documentation and submit to the appropriate department.

Preparation

- Gain familiarity with the Unit of Competency, Elements of Competency and the Performance Criteria expected
- Study details assessment documentation and requirements
- Brief candidate regarding all assessment criteria and requirements.

Briefing Checklist

- Begin the assessment by implementing the following checklist and then invite the candidate to proceed with assessment.

Checklist for Assessors

Prior to the assessment I have:	Tick (✓)	Remarks
Ensured the candidate is informed about the venue and schedule of assessment.
Received current copies of the performance criteria to be assessed, assessment plan, evidence gathering plan, assessment checklist, appeal form and the company's standard operating procedures (SOP).
Reviewed the performance criteria and evidence plan to ensure I clearly understood the instructions and the requirements of the assessment process.
Identified and accommodated any special needs of the candidate.
Checked the set-up and resources for the assessment.
During the assessment I have:
Introduced myself and confirmed identities of candidates.
Put candidates at ease by being friendly and helpful.
Explained to candidates the purpose, context and benefits of the assessment.
Ensured candidates understood the assessment process and all attendant procedures.
Provided candidates with an overview of performance criteria to be assessed.
Explained the results reporting procedure.
Encouraged candidates to seek clarifications if in doubt.
Asked candidates for feedback on the assessment.
Explained legal, safety and ethical issues, if applicable.
After the assessment I have:
Ensured candidate is given constructive feedback.
Completed and signed the assessment record.
Thanked candidate for participating in the assessment.

Instructions for Recording Competency

Specifications for Recording Competency

The following specifications apply to the preparation of Evidence Gathering Plans:

- A Competency Recording Sheet must be prepared for each candidate to ensure and demonstrate all Performance Criteria and Competency Elements are appropriately assessed. This Sheet indicates how the Assessor will gather evidence during their assessment of each candidate
- This Competency Recording Sheet is located at the end of the Assessment Plan
- It is the overriding document to record competency
- The Assessor may vary the Competency Recording Sheet to accommodate practical and individual candidate and/or workplace needs
- Assessor must place a tick (✓) in the 'Assessment Method' columns to identify the methods of assessment to be used for each candidate
- Multiple Competency Elements/Performance Criteria may be assessed at the one time, where appropriate
- The assessor and participant should sign and date the Competency Recording Sheet, when all forms of evidence and assessment have been completed
- The assessor may provide and feedback or clarify questions which the participant may have in regards to the assessment grade or findings
- All documents used to capture evidence must be retained, and attached to the Competency Recording Sheet for each candidate for each Competency Unit.

Instructions for Different Assessment Methods

Specifications for Work Project Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of work projects.

The work projects identified in the Training Manuals involve a range of tasks, to be performed at the discretion of the Assessor.

Work project tasks can be completed through any form of assessment as identified in the Trainer and Trainee Manuals and stated at the start of this section.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Review the Work Projects at the end of each 'Element of Competency' in the Trainee Manual to ensure you understand the content and what is expected
- Prepare sufficient resources for the completion of work activities including:
 - Time – whether in scheduled delivery hours or suggested time participants to spend outside of class hours
 - Resources – this may involve technical equipment, computer, internet access, stationery and other supplementary materials and documents
- Prepare assessment location (if done in class) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Work Projects assessment to candidate, at the start of each Element of Competency. This ensures that participants are aware of what is expected and can collate information as delivery takes place

- Assessors can use the following phrase as a guide (where an 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
 "At the end of each Element of Competency there are Work Projects which must be completed. These projects require different tasks that must be completed.
 These work projects are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X:
- You are required to complete these activities:
 - Using the 'X' method of assessment*
 - At 'X' location*
 - You will have 'X time period' for this assessment*
 - You are required to compile information in a format that you feel is appropriate to the assessment
 - Do you have any questions about this assessment?"
- Commence Work Project assessment:
 - The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
 - Participants complete work projects in the most appropriate format
 - Participants must submit Work Project evidence to the assessor before the scheduled due date
- Assessor must assess the participant's evidence against the competency standards specified in each Element of Competency and their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has provided evidence to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Oral Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of oral questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines.

- Prepare Assessment Record for Oral Questioning. One record for each candidate:
 - Enter Student name
 - Enter Assessor name
 - Enter Location
- Familiarise self with Questions to be asked
- Prepare assessment location (table and chairs) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Oral Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
"These oral questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability and I will record whether or not you have answered correctly.

We have 60 minutes for this assessment.

- I will give you feedback at the end of the assessment
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?"
- Commence Oral Questioning assessment:
 - Complete Assessment Record for the Oral Questioning by:
 - a) Ticking PC or NYC, as appropriate
 - b) Entering 'Remarks' as required
 - c) Completing Oral Questioning within 60 minutes
- Complete Oral Questioning and provide feedback to candidate
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Written Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of written questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Familiarise self with Questions and Answers provided
- Print and distribute copies of 'Written Questions' for participants. Ideally this should take place with adequate time for participants to answer all questions before the expected due date
- Explain Written Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):

"These written questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability.

You may refer to your subject materials, however where possible try to utilise your existing knowledge when answering questions.

Where you are unsure of questions, please ask the Assessor for further instruction. This may be answering the question orally or asking the assessor to redefine the question.

We have X time for this assessment:

- The due date for completion of this assessment is X
- On this date you must forward the completed questions to the assessor by X time on the date of X
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?"
- The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
- Participants may record written answers (where possible)
- Participants must submit the written answers to the assessor before the scheduled due date

- Assessor must assess the participant's written answers against the model answers provided as a guide, or their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has answered the questions to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Observation Checklist

These specifications apply to the use of the Observation Checklist in determining competency for candidates.

Only an approved assessor is authorised to complete the Observation Checklist.

The assessor is required to observe the participant, ideally in a simulated environment or their practical workplace setting and record their performance (or otherwise) of the competencies listed on the Observation Checklist for the Competency Unit.

To complete the Observation Checklist the Assessor must:

- Insert name of candidate
- Insert assessor name
- Insert identify of location where observations are being undertaken
- Insert date/s of observations – may be single date or multiple dates
- Place a tick in either the 'Yes' or 'No' box for each listed Performance Criteria to indicate the candidate has demonstrated/not demonstrated that skill
- Provide written (and verbal) feedback to candidate – as/if appropriate
- Sign and date the form
- Present form to candidate for them to sign and date
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Observation Checklist.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the participant.

Specifications for Third Party Statement

These specifications relate to the use of a relevant workplace person to assist in determining competency for candidates.

The Third Party Statement is to be supplied by the assessor to a person in the workplace who supervises and/or works closely with the participant.

This may be their Supervisor, the venue manager, the Department Manager or similar.

The Third Party Statement asks the Supervisor to record what they believe to be the competencies of the participant based on their workplace experience of the participant. This experience may be gained through observation of their workplace performance, feedback from others, inspection of candidate's work etc.

A meeting must take place between the Assessor and the Third Party to explain and demonstrate the use of the Third Party Statement.

To complete the Third Party Verification Statement the Assessor must:

- Insert candidate name
- Insert name and contact details of the Third Party
- Tick the box to indicate the relationship of the Third Party to the candidate
- Present the partially completed form to the Third Party for them to finalise
- Collect the completed form from the Third Party
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Third Party Statement.

The Third Party must:

- Record their belief regarding candidate ability/competency as either:
 - Pass Competent = Yes
 - Not Yet Competent = No
 - Unsure about whether candidate is competent or not = Not Sure
- Meet briefly with the assessor to discuss and/or clarify the form.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the candidate.

A separate Third Party Statement is required for each Competency Unit undertaken by the candidate.

UNIT TITLE: MONITOR TOURISM OPERATIONS		NOMINAL HOURS: 80
UNIT NUMBER: D2.TTO.CL4.12
UNIT DESCRIPTOR: This unit deals with skills and knowledge required to monitor social, cultural, environmental, political, legal and technological factors that impact on the macroeconomic and microeconomic performance of tourism activity and operations
ELEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE CRITERIA	UNIT VARIABLE AND ASSESSMENT GUIDE
Element 1: Describe the social and cultural impacts of tourism operations 1.1 Classify and describe the social impacts of tourism operations 1.2 Rate the collective and individual changes as a result of tourism operations 1.3 Classify and describe the cultural impacts of tourism operations 1.4 Identify examples of appropriate and inappropriate tourism operations 1.5 Identify factors affecting cultural sustainability in tourism operations 1.6 Evaluate the impact, effectiveness and potential future of policies relating to tourism and social and cultural impacts	Unit Variables The Unit Variables provide advice to interpret the scope and context of this unit of competence, allowing for differences between enterprises and workplaces. It relates to the unit as a whole and facilitates holistic assessment. This unit applies to all industry sectors that are involved in, or considering involvement in, tourism operations within the labour divisions of the hotel and travel industries and may include: 1. Tour Operation Social impacts may include: • Social re-location and dislocation • Changes in crime types and rates • Introduction of diseases and pests • Status alterations.

Element 2: Describe the environmental impacts of tourism operations 2.1 Identify the basic principles of sustainability in tourism 2.2 Describe the relationship between the environment and tourism 2.3 Quantify the impact of tourism operations on the environment 2.4 Evaluate the impact, effectiveness and potential future of policies relating to tourism and environmental impacts Element 3: Describe the macroeconomic factors impacting on tourism operations 3.1 Identify demand and supply factors impacting on tourism operations 3.2 Identify and describe factors creating elasticity of demand for tourism operations 3.3 Describe the economies of countries from which in-bound tourists are sourced 3.4 Describe the impact of macroeconomic factors on the tourism industry 3.5 Evaluate the short- and long-term changes in macroeconomic aggregates on tourism operations 3.6 Compare local tourism industry performance against those of relevant other countries	Collective and individual changes may relate to: • Value systems • Community structures • Lifestyle issues. Cultural impacts may include: • Art, dance and music • Storytelling, including legends and histories • Foods • Artefacts • Symbols and symbolic actions • Rituals, rites, ceremonies and celebrations • Heroes, significant figures and individuals • Beliefs, assumptions and attitudes • Language • Religion • Dress. Factors affecting cultural sustainability may include: • Types of tourism operations in use • Numbers of tourists involved • Type of activities engaged in • Extent of liaison and cooperation with local communities • Level of monitoring of agreed codes of practice and acceptable behaviour.

Element 4: Describe the effects of microeconomic factors on tourism operations 4.1 Differentiate between microeconomic factors and macroeconomic factors impacting on tourism 4.2 Track changes in cost structures and establishment costs in relation to tourism operations 4.3 Evaluate current comparative considerations within the context of tourism operations 4.4 Interpret current policies and initiatives impacting on tourism operations 4.5 Quantify changes in discretionary and non-discretionary expenditure within the tourism industry 4.6 Identify the current competitive advantage that exists for the host country/region in relation to tourism operations 4.7 Describe the impact of e-commerce on tourism operations 4.8 Review tourism resource sources, data and interpretive statistical information relating to current tourism operations and emerging trends	Policies may include: • Enterprise-specific policies and procedures • Policies imposed by all regulatory authorities, international, national, regional, urban or other • Policies imposed by legislation of the host country • Policy settings and targets • Specific issues, as applicable, such as: ▪ Social justice, equality and discrimination ▪ Public health and broader preventative health policies ▪ Community development. Basic principles of sustainability may include: • Environmental carrying capacity • Informing visitors on expected behaviours • Site hardening techniques • Technological solutions • Public education campaigns • Barriers and constructions to restrict or limit access to areas and sites • Staged authenticity • Setting limits of acceptable change (LAC) • Zoning of threatened areas • Total bans on access to nominated areas • Involvement of local community in identifying changed situations

Element 5: Describe the political and legal influences and impacts on tourism operations 5.1 Describe the ethical considerations that currently apply to tourism operations 5.2 Describe the state of political stability in the host country and countries from which in-bound tourists are sourced 5.3 Describe the political and legal restrictions that currently exist on entry to the host country/region 5.4 Define the legal requirements that currently apply to conducting tourism operations in the host country/region 5.5 Describe the function of key statutory host countries bodies in relation to tourism operations 5.6 Evaluate the economic impact of national and regional host country security issues on tourism operations 5.7 Identify national and internal tourism growth zones for in-bound tourists 5.8 Describe the impact of current immigration, quarantine and customs regulations on tourism operations	• Scheduling of visitations to govern access and use • Consideration of restricting access to times of suitable weather conditions and/or seasons • Limitations on the size of visiting groups • Bans on entry of nominated items, including pets, certain vehicles • Bans on nominated activities, including hunting, picking flowers, getting near fauna, lighting fires, taking items from the area • Integrating ecological best practice into plans and practical implementation of plans. The relationship between the environment and tourism should address: • Identifying endangered or threatened species • Describing past impacts of tourism operations on the environment and ecology • Describing and evaluating past attempts at achieving ecological sustainability in the area • Researching projections relating to the future impact of continuing existing tourism operations • Reviewing reports and environmental and ecological assessments already undertaken • Results of environmental impact studies • Determining the relative balance between costs and disadvantages relating to tourism operations. Impact of tourism operations on the environment may include: • Air • Water • Noise • Flora and fauna

	• Cultural heritage • Marine heritage. Demand and supply factors may include: • Economic conditions, including levels of employment, disposable income, interest rates • Currency exchange rates • Current tourism alternatives available for tourists to choose from • New entrants into /opposition to the tourism market • Amount of leisure time available • Amount of trade being conducted between the host country and overseas destinations • Special events, such as Olympics, cultural/religious festivals. Elasticity of demand refers to: • The effect that price changes have on demand for tourism products and services. Describe the economies of countries may include: • Identifying inflation rates • Identifying currency exchange rates • Describing economic indicators and measures • Describing the economic system/types of economies in operation. Macroeconomic factors may include: • Growth • Employment • Inflation • National income

	• Rate of growth • Gross domestic product (GDP) • Price levels. Macroeconomic aggregates must include: • Supply • Demand. Microeconomic factors may include: • Patterns of supply and demand • Determination of price and output in individual markets • Influence of government policies • Resource allocation • Income distribution. Cost structures and establishment costs may include: • New and revised fees and charges that apply to tourism operations • Consideration of out-sourcing of service functions • Level, extent and trends relating to industry-related costs. Comparative considerations are contextual in nature and may include: • Social • Ethical • Financial • Operational.

	Current policies and initiatives impacting on tourism operations may include: • Trade agreements • Structural economic reforms • Currency exchange rates • Initiatives undertaken by peak industry bodies including government agencies. Current competitive advantage may include: • Events • Seasonal considerations • Access issues • Currency exchange rates • Destinations, attractions and experiences available • Reputation of the destination • State of the economy • Political stability. The impact of e-commerce must include: • Impact of internet information provision, including on-line responses to enquiries • Impact of internet booking facilities • Impact of internet payment facilities • Impact of internet on e-ticketing. Tourism resource sources, data and interpretive statistical information may include: • Private market research • Fee-for-service tourism data

	• Publications/reports from industry peak bodies and relevant government agencies. Ethical considerations may include: • Truth and honesty in advertising • Gratuities • Delivering products and services as promised/advertised • Transparency in dealings • Provision of guarantees and warranties • Membership of peak industry bodies, including adherence to industry-wide standards and codes of practice incorporating complaints handling procedures, refund policies, ethical conduct and treatment of customers. Political stability may relate to: • Coups • Changes of government • Political upheavals. Legal restrictions may include: • Bans that exist on travel • Prohibitions that apply to classes of people • Limitations on granting of passports and visas. Legal requirements may include: • Initial establishment criteria, including mandatory requirements, options available • Qualifications and other requirements of new entrants into the industry • Insurance coverage • Ongoing compliance requirements

- Changes to legislation
- General business registration requirements with relevant government agencies.

Key statutory host countries bodies are:

- Agencies and government departments who have responsibilities relating to the establishment, registration, conduct and monitoring of industry organisations.

Evaluate the economic impact of national and regional host country security issues may include:

- Assessing the state of national security
- Reviewing the tourism-related fallout of significant security threats and events
- Evaluating the actions taken to mitigate negative tourism impacts.

Assessment Guide

The following skills and knowledge must be assessed as part of this unit:

- Enterprise policies and procedures in regard to entering a new tourism market and/or remaining in an existing tourism market
- Understanding of the business plans and strategic directions of the host enterprise
- Ability to apply research skills and analyse captured data
- Ability to interpret tourism industry data, research information and policies
- General knowledge of the tourism industry and relevant sub-sectors with specialist knowledge regarding countries with which, or in which, the host enterprise has a current or potential commercial interest
- Understanding of terminology relating to social, economic, environmental and cultural factors impacting on tourism operations
- Ability to apply communication, forecasting, interpersonal and statistical manipulation skills.

	Linkages To Other Units • Access and retrieve computer-based data • Develop a marketing strategy and coordinate sales activities • Develop new products and services • Use common business tools and technology • Manage legal requirements for business compliance • Develop and update tourism industry knowledge • Demonstrate/observe respect for indigenous cultures • Develop and coordinate appropriate cultural tourism activity • Maintain contacts with handling agents • Plan, develop and evaluate interpretive activities • Plan, trial and implement minimal impact operations • Manage operational risk • Assess and plan tourism opportunities for local communities • Construct and apply tourism product research • Develop and monitor culturally appropriate tourism activity • Develop, manage and evaluate local marketing strategies • Develop/monitor ecologically sustainable tourism operations • Manage and monitor innovative tourism programs and projects.

Critical Aspects of Assessment

Evidence of the following is essential:

- Understanding of host enterprise policies and procedures in regard to entering a new tourism market and/or remaining in an existing tourism market
- Demonstrated ability to produce a comprehensive, current, written report detailing the impact of relevant factors, which may include social, political, cultural, environmental, economic and other factors, on the tourism operations of a nominated business, region or country.

Context of Assessment

This unit may be assessed on or off the job

- Assessment should include practical demonstration either in the workplace or through a simulation activity, supported by a range of methods to assess underpinning knowledge
- Assessment must relate to the individual's work area or area of responsibility.

Resource Implications

Training and assessment to include access to a real or simulated workplace; and access to workplace standards, procedures, policies, guidelines, tools and equipment.

Assessment Methods

The following methods may be used to assess competency for this unit:

- Case studies
- Observation of practical candidate performance
- Oral and written questions
- Portfolio evidence
- Problem solving

- Role plays
- Third party reports completed by a supervisor
- Project and Assignment Work.

Key Competencies in this Unit

Level 1 = competence to undertake tasks effectively

Level 2 = competence to manage tasks

Level 3 = competence to use concepts for evaluating

Key Competencies	Level	Examples
Collecting, organising and analysing information	3	Evaluate tourism data
Communicating ideas and information	2	Share conclusions reached regarding the impacts on tourism operations
Planning and organising activities	2	Schedule research and analysis activities
Working with others and in teams	2	Liaise with industry personnel and bodies to obtain required information
Using mathematical ideas and techniques	3	Evaluate statistics relating to tourism operations
Solving problems	2	Determine options available for negative tourism outcomes
Using technology	1	Use the internet to research identified topics

Answers to written questions

Monitor tourism operations – D2.TTO.CL4.12

The following are model answers only – Trainers/Assessors must use discretion when determining whether or not an answer provided by a Student is acceptable or not.

1. List the definitions of the following:

Business visitor

A business visitor is a visitor whose main purpose for a tourism trip corresponds to the business and professional category.

Excursionist (or same-day visitor)

A visitor (domestic, inbound or outbound) is classified as a same-day visitor (or excursionist) if his/her trip does not include an overnight stay.

Meetings industry

To highlight purposes relevant to the meetings industry, if a trip's main purpose is business/professional, it can be further subdivided into "attending meetings, conferences or congresses, trade fairs and exhibitions" and "other business and professional purposes".

Tourist (or overnight visitor)

A visitor (domestic, inbound or outbound) is classified as a tourist (or overnight visitor), if his/her trip includes an overnight stay.

Travel party

A travel party is defined as visitors travelling together on a trip and whose expenditures are pooled.

Visit

A trip is made up of visits to different places. The term tourism visit refers to a stay in a place visited during a tourism trip.

Visitor

A visitor is a traveller taking a trip to a main destination outside his/her usual environment, for less than a year, for any main purpose (business, leisure or other personal purpose) other than to be employed by a resident entity in the country or place visited. A visitor (domestic, inbound or outbound) is classified as a tourist (or overnight visitor), if his/her trip includes an overnight stay, or as a same-day visitor (or excursionist) otherwise."

2. List 5 positive and 5 negative impacts of tourism.

Any from the following:

Positive impacts of tourism

- Growth of existing businesses
- Development of new businesses
- More jobs and employment opportunities
- A more sustainable economy
- Income redistribution
- Poverty alleviation
- Improved quality of life for people/families flowing from employment, economic growth and stability
- Strengthening communities
- Facilities developed for tourism can benefit residents
- Increased amount and variety of products, services and entertainment
- Greater investment in local infrastructure and public transport systems from governments
- Maintenance, growth and improvement in local facilities
- Cultural empowerment and increased sense of pride as locals become ambassadors for tourism in their region
- Revaluation of culture and traditions
- Facilitates civic involvement and pride
- Tax revenue for governments
- Enhanced public/international awareness of the country/location
- Economic diversification and general economic benefits to the local community
- Increased cultural understanding
- Locals and visitors exchange ideas
- Opportunity to share the culture and educate visitors
- Investment opportunities from the private sector in relation to businesses, real estate, and infrastructure
- Improved health and training facilities
- Greater educational opportunities occur through additional schools and other educational providers
- Opportunity to enhance the preservation of endangered or threatened aspects of the local culture, customs and community
- Opportunity to make the wider community aware of the problems facing the community.

Negative impacts of tourism

- Impact of tourism on the social fabric of society
- Lack of local workers to fill the jobs which are generated
- Provision only of menial and low-paid jobs
- Seasonal employment only (in some areas)
- Increased number of people relocated for limited or seasonal work
- Shortage of labour in local industry
- Rises in prices
- Modification or decimation of moral or cultural characteristics of a society
- Trivialisation or dilution of the culture
- Loss of local traditions and customs of local communities
- Commercialisation of culture may not be an accurate portrayal of the culture
- Members of the local community become envious of the tourist lifestyle
- Loss of a sense of community within the area
- Ultimate dependency on tourism and consequent need to accommodate whatever is required regardless of the consequences
- Damage to the land and environment including additional pollution
- Over-development resulting in decreased amenity of the area
- Money leaving the area because businesses are owned by external operators
- Unacceptable level of use of/stress on community resources by tourists to the detriment of the local community – over-crowding and (traffic) congestion
- Local attractions restricted to local communities
- Possible limited access to beaches and other areas set aside for tourists
- Increased social change
- Increased cost of living for the members of the community
- Racial and ethnic tension
- Undesirable activities such as begging, gambling, prostitution
- Child protection and child sex trade concerns
- Re-location and dislocation
- Unwanted intervention by tourists in normal everyday activities
- Control of the local area may move (more) to external people, businesses or authorities
- Changes in crime types and rates
- Introduction of diseases and pests.

3. What is the definition of indigenous?

The word indigenous refers to people who were native to a particular country.

4. Identify five appropriate and five inappropriate characteristics of tourism organisations.

Any from the following:

Characteristics of appropriate operators include, but not limited to:

- Encouraging community engagement with and involvement in, the planning and development process
- Gaining agreement from the community about the nature and implementation of the planned operation
- Obtaining necessary authorisations and permissions
- Designing strategies and procedures that will balance economic viability with cultural appropriateness
- Developing codes of practice in conjunction with the community
- Preparing implementation plans for operational activities, including gaining approval of plans from the specific community
- Training staff, including cultural sensitivity and awareness training that embraces respect for different cultures and stresses the need for staff to demonstrate appropriate cultural sensitivity and respect with both the community and visitors
- Ensuring the cultural appropriateness of all operational activities that are identified and planned
- Identifying appropriate behaviour by tour guides and tour group members during identified cultural tourism activities
- Undertaking operational activities in a legal manner
- Enhancing the overall community
- Ensuring operational activities do not impact negatively on the general community
- Investing or supporting local community initiatives.

Characteristics of inappropriate operators include, but not limited to:

- Operating in an illegal manner
- Exploiting the local community and individual persons
- Tarnishing the reputation of the community
- Conducting activities not aligned with local laws and culture
- Failing to engage in appropriate consultation with the indigenous community
- Allowing visitors to behave in an inappropriate manner
- Not defining the boundaries of what can and cannot be shared with visitors
- Failing to determine access issues.

5. Identify factors that affect cultural sustainability.

Include any of the following;

- Types of tourism operations in use
- Numbers of tourists involved
- Type of activities engaged in
- Extent of liaison and cooperation with local communities
- Level of monitoring of agreed codes of practice and acceptable behaviour.

6. Identify and define the different types of data obtained when conducting research.

Secondary data

Secondary research data is information that already exists.

Primary data

When the secondary research data has been read and analysed there is often a need to obtain primary research data.

Primary research data is generated to fill gaps in the knowledge which exist after the secondary research data has been read and analysed. It is new, freshly-generated data.

Primary research data may be captured through the application of a range of market research techniques identified in the following section.

Qualitative data

Qualitative data is also known as 'soft' data.

Qualitative data seeks to answer 'Why?' questions.

Quantitative data seeks to answer 'quantifiable' questions.

Quantitative data

Quantitative data is also known as 'hard' data.

7. What is sustainable tourism?

Sustainable tourism' is based on the principles of sustainable development. It is based on 'minimising adverse impacts on local communities, heritage, landscapes, water resources, habitats and species while supporting social and economic development. Taking care of the environment means taking care of the visitors and the local community.

Built development and other activities associated with tourism should in all respects be appropriate to the character of the place in which they are situated. This applies to the scale, design and nature of the place as well as to the particular land use, economic and social requirements of the place and its surroundings.

8. What should the relationship between the environment and tourism address?

- Identifying endangered or threatened species
- Describing past impacts of tourism operations on the environment and ecology
- Describing and evaluating past attempts at achieving ecological sustainability in the area
- Researching projections relating to the future impact of continuing existing tourism operations
- Reviewing reports and environmental and ecological assessments already undertaken
- Results of environmental impact studies
- Determining the relative balance between costs and disadvantages relating to tourism operations.

9. Identify the environment areas impacted by tourism.

These environmental areas include:

- Air
- Water
- Noise
- Flora and fauna
- Cultural heritage
- Marine heritage.

10. Identify focus areas for environmental management planning.

Any of the following;

- Improved environmental management and planning
- Cleaner production techniques
- Energy-efficient and non-polluting construction materials
- Efficient sewage systems
- Energy sources
- Improved waste treatment and disposal
- Environmental awareness raising
- Environmental protection
- Conservation and restoration of biological diversity
- Sustainable use of natural resources
- Regulatory measures
- Introduction of policies and procedures
- Controls on the number of tourist activities and movement of visitors within protected areas.

11. What may be the motivations for a person to visit a region or area?

- May be related to the visitor types anticipated for the location
- Will embrace activities such as relaxation, study, sport, culture, adventure, retreat and novelty
- Involve visitations to natural and man-made attractions.

12. Identify some factors that will influence discretionary and non- discretionary income.

Any of the following:

- Changing economic conditions – locally and internationally, which may make the destination community more or less attractive to visitors
- Changing expectations of visitors
- Changing cost of travel
- Current tourism alternatives available for tourists to choose from
- New entrants into the tourism market
- Amount of leisure time available
- Amount of trade being conducted between the host country and overseas destinations
- Special events, such as Olympics, cultural or religious festivals.

13. What is the definition of elasticity of demand?

Price elasticity of demand is a measure used in economics to show the responsiveness, or elasticity, of the quantity demanded of a good or service to a change in its price.

14. Identify two points regarding the importance of inbound tourism.

Anything from the following:

Tourism to a country is classified as an export. It is a product sold overseas to overseas customers. The income earned from inbound tourism is in the form of foreign exchange, otherwise known as foreign currency.

This income supports local businesses and in-turn improves the health of the local economy.

Besides the direct income generated by local businesses, it is important to note that tourism activities are attractive to governments for taxation reasons. This provides governments with another source of revenue. We can identify a range of taxes levied against travel and tourism industry services including Goods and Services Tax (GST) and airport taxes. Each country will have their own taxes relating to tourism. All these taxes provide a flow of additional income to governments.

Tourism spending results in a movement of money from one area to another and the creation of jobs. It is seen as a strategy to foster economic development and growth in regions that may have little scope for development otherwise.

The development of attractions and the construction of resorts and infrastructure are examples of this.

Also of significant importance is the potential of tourism to diversify the range of employment opportunities and the income base of a region. This is particularly important in many ASEAN rural regions where traditional forms of employment and income may be shrinking.

International tourists bring 'new' money into the local economy. International tourism is regarded as one of the most important export earning foreign currency for most ASEAN countries, which is then invested or used to purchase imports.

15. What is the projected total of GDP for ASEAN region for 2015?

16. Identify tourism revenue sectors.

- Accommodation
- Food and beverage
- Transport
- Retail
- Recreation
- Entertainment.

17. What are the key economic benefits of tourism to an economy?

Key economic benefits of tourism to an economy are:

- Employment
- Taxes
- Production
- Wages.

18. Identify the macroeconomic factors influenced by tourism.

- Employment
- Taxes
- Production
- Wages.

19. What are the six key microeconomic business factors that affect almost all tourism organisations?

- Customers
- Employees
- Distribution Channels and Suppliers
- Competitors
- Stakeholders
- Media, public and general community.

20. What key resources does a business need to achieve its identified business objectives?

- Physical resources
- Human resources
- Financial resources
- Intangible resources.

21. Identify four internal and four external factors affecting capabilities and resources.

Any from the following;

Internal factors

- Directions the business wishes to take
- Target markets
- Nature and type of customers
- Service levels and standards
- Services and products provided.
- Equipment used
- The existing reputation and image of the business
- Budget
- Style of service
- Existing resources
- Volume of customers
- Promises made.

External factors

- The external business environment
- Customer expectations
- Emerging trends
- Changes in legislation and technology
- Availability of resources.

22. What examples could an organisation use to gather information about the industry?

- Market situation
- Competitive situation
- Current strategies.

23. Identify 8 methods for analysing the competition.

- Who are they, and where are they located
- Facilities available
- Location and distribution area that they have established
- Target markets they appear to have set
- How well they present to potential customers
- Territory
- Customer accounts
- Product and service mix
- An objective assessment of the quality of their product/service – Are they providing good quality, costs, variations, reliable service, acceptable trading hours, and value-for-money?
- Their promotional mix – what they do in terms of advertising, when and how
- Packaging or presentation
- Their pricing structure – Do they give discounts, trade-ins, a wholesale and retail structure?
- Access
- Continuity
- Volume
- Trading terms
- Service standards that are being delivered
- Their level of customer service – What do they provide? Are their staff good at selling and service?
- Degree of alignment between the promises being made and actual service delivery
- Customer satisfaction.
- The market share that the competition is enjoying
- The significance of their market share of the market in the local area.

24. Identify some types of competitive advantage.

- Events
- Seasonal considerations
- Access issues
- Currency exchange rates
- Destinations, attractions and experiences available
- Reputation of the destination
- State of the economy
- Political stability.

25. Identify the current policies and initiatives that may impact on tourism operations.

- Trade agreements
- Different trade agreements including free trade agreements will exist between countries
- Structural economic reforms
- Currency exchange rates
- Initiatives undertaken by peak industry bodies including government agencies.

26. Why is e-commerce important in tourism operations?

E-commerce has been immensely beneficial for the industry. It has made the world a smaller place and made it easier for businesses to get in touch with customers.

E-commerce has simplified and streamlined the way we operate.

27. What is the definition of 'a trend'?

- A one-off event or statistical anomaly is not likely to be interpreted as a trend
- There may be a requirement for the identified issue ('something') to be present in at least four) consecutive analysis processes before it can be deemed a 'trend'
- Things under a nominated value or amount will not be considered for the purposes of trend identification
- Matters impacting certain classifications of people as identified by nominated demographic characteristics will not be considered
- A nominated software package must be used for the purposes of identifying and quantifying trends
- A specific data analysis method/technique must be used to determine trends.

28. How are ethical behaviours governed?

The ethical behaviours of a business may be governed by legislation, and in other cases it is purely up to the individual operator to determine what is acceptable as ethical behaviours and what is not.

29. What political situations may impact tourism?

- Perceptions and fears about travel safety – increased fears about problems in the political system of a host community will always result in a negative impact on inbound tourism
- By contrast, there is an increase in visitations where the political situation is stable
- Ability to move in and between countries and regional destinations – issues between governments may result in actual or perceived travel problems for visitors in terms of matters such as visas, customs, immigration, passport control.

30. In what areas would you need to determine your ethical standards, practises and platforms?

- Products
- Service provision
- The environment
- People
- The community
- Money
- Promotions and advertising
- Intellectual property
- Conflict of interests.

31. What economic and political policies may be included that would influence tourism organisations?

- Fiscal Policies – taxation and levies
- Monetary – interest rates
- Wages – minimum working wages and on-costs
- Exchange rates – the cost of exchanging one currency into that of another
- Ease of travel – into and out of a country, visa restrictions
- Legislative changes – new or amended laws
- Legal restrictions
- Changing marketplace activities – undertaken by other business sectors and industries
- Changing government direction in relation to tourism.

32. Identify functions of visa's and travel documents.

- Ensuring security
- Controlling immigration and limiting the entry, duration of stay and activities undertaken by travellers
- Generation of revenue for economies
- Enabling measures of reciprocity
- Safeguarding a destination's capacity by controlling tourism demand.

33. Identify some of the legal requirements that apply to conducting tourism operation.

In addition to laws, there are many other 'rules' or 'conditions' set down by governments, local councils and industry authorities which not be legal, but advise you to adhere to in addition to legislative requirements.

There are many, many pieces of legislation, licences, permits, fees etc that will apply to travel and tourism businesses. They will differ from country to country and to different types of tourism and travel related businesses.

34. What is the function of key bodies in relation to tourism operations?

Their role is to regulate and manage the industry.

In each country there will be different government bodies and associations that manage tourism strategies and policies and provide guidance and support to the tourism industry.

35. Explain the economic impact of security issues on tourism operations.

Tourism security is now a primary concern for all travellers; be they domestic or inbound. It is now widely accepted by the international community that the success of the tourist industry in a particular country or region is directly linked to its ability to offer tourists a safe and pleasant visit.
