Competency Based Assessment (CBA) – An Introduction for Assessors

Assessment is the process of identifying a participant's current knowledge, skills and attitudes sets against all elements of competency within a unit of competency.

Suggested Assessment Methods

For each unit of competency a number of assessment tools have been identified including:

- Work Projects
- Oral Questions
- Written Questions
- Third Party Statements
- Observation Checklists.

Instructions and Evidence Recording Sheets have been identified in this Assessment Manual for use by Assessors.

Alternative Assessment Methods

Whilst the above mentioned assessment methods are suggested assessment methods, the assessor may use an alternate method of assessment taking into account:

- a) The nature of the unit
- b) The strengths of participants
- c) The number of participants in the class
- d) Time required to complete assessments
- e) Time dedicated to assessment
- f) Equipment and resources required.

Alternate assessment methods include:

- Practical demonstrations
- Practical demonstrations in simulated work conditions
- Problem solving
- Portfolios of evidence
- Critical incident reports
- Journals
- Oral presentations
- Interviews
- Videos
- Visuals/slides/audiotapes

- Case studies
- Log books
- Projects and Role plays
- Group projects
- Recognition of Prior Learning.

Whilst there is no specific instruction or evidence collection documents for all the alternative assessment methods, assessors can record competency in the 'Other' section within the 'Competency Recording Sheet'.

Selection of Assessment Methods

Each assessor will determine the combination of Assessment Methods to be used to determine Competency for each Competency Unit on a student by student basis.

'Sufficient' evidence to support the 'Pass Competent'/'Not Yet Competent' decision must be captured.

In practice this means a minimum of 2 – 3 Assessment Methods for each candidate for each Competency Element is suggested.

At least one method should provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence.

The following assessment methods deemed to provide evidence of practical demonstration of competence include:

- Practical Work Projects
- Third Party Statement
- Observation Checklist.

Assessing Competency

Competency based assessment does not award grades, but simply identifies if the participant has the knowledge, skills and attitudes to undertake the required task to the specified standard.

Therefore, when assessing competency, an assessor has two possible results that can be awarded:

- 'Pass Competent' (PC)
- 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

Pass Competent (PC)

If the participant is able to successfully answer or demonstrate what is required, to the expected standards of the performance criteria, they will be deemed as 'Pass Competent' (PC).

The assessor will award a 'Pass Competent'(PC) if they feel the participant has the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes in all assessment tasks for a unit.

Not Yet Competent' (NYC)

If the participant is unable to answer or demonstrate competency to the desired standard, they will be deemed to be 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC).

This does not mean the participant will need to complete all the assessment tasks again. The focus will be on the specific assessment tasks that were not performed to the expected standards.

The participant may be required to:

- a) Undertake further training or instruction
- b) Undertake the assessment task again until they are deemed to be 'Pass Competent'.

Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System

The 'Regional Qualifications Framework and Skills Recognition System', also known as the 'RQFSRS' is the overriding educational framework for the ASEAN region.

The purpose of this framework is to provide:

- A standardised teaching and assessment framework
- Mutual recognition of participant achievement across the ASEAN region. This includes achievement in individual Units of Competency or qualifications as a whole.

The role of the 'RQFSRS' is to provide, ensure and maintain 'quality assurance' across all countries and educational providers across the ASEAN region.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process that gives current industry professionals who do not have a formal qualification, the opportunity to benchmark their extensive skills and experience against the standards set out in each unit of competency/subject.

This process is a learning and assessment pathway which encompasses:

- Recognition of Current Competencies (RCC)
- Skills auditing
- Gap analysis and training
- Credit transfer.

Code of Practice for Assessors

This Code of Practice provides:

- Assessors with direction on the standard of practice expected of them
- Candidates with assurance of the standards of practice expected of assessors
- Employers with assurance of the standards maintained in the conduct of assessment.

The Code detailed below is based on the International Code of Ethics and Practice (The National Council for Measurement in Education [NCME]):

- The differing needs and requirements of the person being assessed, the local enterprise and/or industry are identified and handled with sensitivity
- Potential forms of conflict of interest in the assessment process and/or outcomes are identified and appropriate referrals are made, if necessary
- All forms of harassment are avoided throughout the planning, conducting, reviewing and reporting of the assessment outcomes

- The rights of the candidate are protected during and after the assessment
- Personal and interpersonal factors that are not relevant to the assessment of competency must not influence the assessment outcomes
- The candidate is made aware of rights and process of appeal
- Evidence that is gathered during the assessment is verified for validity, reliability, authenticity, sufficiency and currency
- Assessment decisions are based on available evidence that can be produced and verified by another assessor
- Assessments are conducted within the boundaries of the assessment system policies and procedures
- Formal agreement is obtained from both the candidate and the assessor that the assessment was carried out in accordance with agreed procedures
- The candidate is informed of all assessment reporting processes prior to the assessment
- The candidate is informed of all known potential consequences of decisions arising from an assessment, prior to the assessment
- Confidentiality is maintained regarding assessment results
- The assessment results are used consistently with the purposes explained to the candidate
- Opportunities are created for technical assistance in planning, conducting and reviewing assessment procedures and outcomes.

Instructions and Checklist for Assessors

Instructions

General instructions for the assessment:

- Assessment should be conducted at a scheduled time that has been notified to the candidate
- Facilitators must ensure participants are made aware of the need to complete assessments and attend assessment sessions
- If a participant is unable to attend a scheduled session, they must make arrangements with the Assessor to undertake the assessment at an alternative time
- At the end of the assessment the Assessor must give feedback and advise the participant on their PC/NYC status
- Complete the relevant documentation and submit to the appropriate department.

Preparation

- Gain familiarity with the Unit of Competency, Elements of Competency and the Performance Criteria expected
- Study details assessment documentation and requirements
- Brief candidate regarding all assessment criteria and requirements.

Briefing Checklist

- Begin the assessment by implementing the following checklist and then invite the candidate to proceed with assessment.

Checklist for Assessors

| Prior to the assessment I have:                                                                                                                                                                        | Tick (✓) | Remarks |
| Ensured the candidate is informed about the venue and schedule of assessment.                                                                                                                          |          |         |
| Received current copies of the performance criteria to be assessed, assessment plan, evidence gathering plan, assessment checklist, appeal form and the company's standard operating procedures (SOP). |          |         |
| Reviewed the performance criteria and evidence plan to ensure I clearly understood the instructions and the requirements of the assessment process.                                                    |          |         |
| Identified and accommodated any special needs of the candidate.                                                                                                                                        |          |         |
| Checked the set-up and resources for the assessment.                                                                                                                                                   |          |         |
| During the assessment I have:                                                                                                                                                                   |          |         |
| Introduced myself and confirmed identities of candidates.                                                                                                                                              |          |         |
| Put candidates at ease by being friendly and helpful.                                                                                                                                                  |          |         |
| Explained to candidates the purpose, context and benefits of the assessment.                                                                                                                           |          |         |
| Ensured candidates understood the assessment process and all attendant procedures.                                                                                                                     |          |         |
| Provided candidates with an overview of performance criteria to be assessed.                                                                                                                           |          |         |
| Explained the results reporting procedure.                                                                                                                                                             |          |         |
| Encouraged candidates to seek clarifications if in doubt.                                                                                                                                              |          |         |
| Asked candidates for feedback on the assessment.                                                                                                                                                       |          |         |
| Explained legal, safety and ethical issues, if applicable.                                                                                                                                             |          |         |
| After the assessment I have:                                                                                                                                                                    |          |         |

Instructions for Recording Competency

Specifications for Recording Competency

The following specifications apply to the preparation of Evidence Gathering Plans:

- A Competency Recording Sheet must be prepared for each candidate to ensure and demonstrate all Performance Criteria and Competency Elements are appropriately assessed. This Sheet indicates how the Assessor will gather evidence during their assessment of each candidate
- This Competency Recording Sheet is located at the end of the Assessment Plan
- It is the overriding document to record competency
- The Assessor may vary the Competency Recording Sheet to accommodate practical and individual candidate and/or workplace needs
- Assessor must place a tick (✓) in the 'Assessment Method' columns to identify the methods of assessment to be used for each candidate
- Multiple Competency Elements/Performance Criteria may be assessed at the one time, where appropriate
- The assessor and participant should sign and date the Competency Recording Sheet, when all forms of evidence and assessment have been completed
- The assessor may provide and feedback or clarify questions which the participant may have in regards to the assessment grade or findings
- All documents used to capture evidence must be retained, and attached to the Competency Recording Sheet for each candidate for each Competency Unit.

Instructions for Different Assessment Methods

Specifications for Work Project Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of work projects.

The work projects identified in the Training Manuals involve a range of tasks, to be performed at the discretion of the Assessor.

Work project tasks can be completed through any form of assessment as identified in the Trainer and Trainee Manuals and stated at the start of this section.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Review the Work Projects at the end of each 'Element of Competency' in the Trainee Manual to ensure you understand the content and what is expected
- Prepare sufficient resources for the completion of work activities including:
  - Time – whether in scheduled delivery hours or suggested time participants to spend outside of class hours
  - Resources – this may involve technical equipment, computer, internet access, stationery and other supplementary materials and documents
- Prepare assessment location (if done in class) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Work Projects assessment to candidate, at the start of each Element of Competency. This ensures that participants are aware of what is expected and can collate information as delivery takes place

- Assessors can use the following phrase as a guide (where an 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
 "At the end of each Element of Competency there are Work Projects which must be completed. These projects require different tasks that must be completed.
 These work projects are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X:
- You are required to complete these activities:
    - Using the 'X' method of assessment
    - At 'X' location
    - You will have 'X time period' for this assessment
  - You are required to compile information in a format that you feel is appropriate to the assessment
  - Do you have any questions about this assessment?"
- Commence Work Project assessment:
  - The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
  - Participants complete work projects in the most appropriate format
  - Participants must submit Work Project evidence to the assessor before the scheduled due date
- Assessor must assess the participant's evidence against the competency standards specified in each Element of Competency and their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has provided evidence to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Oral Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of oral questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines.

- Prepare Assessment Record for Oral Questioning. One record for each candidate:
  - Enter Student name
  - Enter Assessor name
  - Enter Location
- Familiarise self with Questions to be asked
- Prepare assessment location (table and chairs) making it conducive to assessment
- Explain Oral Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a 'X' is identified, please input appropriate information):
"These oral questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability and I will record whether or not you have answered correctly.

We have 60 minutes for this assessment.

- I will give you feedback at the end of the assessment
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?”
- Commence Oral Questioning assessment:
  - Complete Assessment Record for the Oral Questioning by:
    - Ticking PC or NYC, as appropriate
    - Entering ‘Remarks’ as required
    - Completing Oral Questioning within 60 minutes
- Complete Oral Questioning and provide feedback to candidate
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Written Question Assessment

These guidelines concern the use of written questioning.

Assessors should follow these guidelines:

- Familiarise self with Questions and Answers provided
- Print and distribute copies of ‘Written Questions’ for participants. Ideally this should take place with adequate time for participants to answer all questions before the expected due date
- Explain Written Questioning assessment to candidate, using the following phrase as a guide (where a ‘X’ is identified, please input appropriate information):

“These written questions are part of the formal assessment for the unit of competency titled X.

There are X questions and you are required to answer all of them to the best of your ability.

You may refer to your subject materials, however where possible try to utilise your existing knowledge when answering questions.

Where you are unsure of questions, please ask the Assessor for further instruction. This may be answering the question orally or asking the assessor to redefine the question.

We have X time for this assessment:

- The due date for completion of this assessment is X
- On this date you must forward the completed questions to the assessor by X time on the date of X
- Do you have any questions about this assessment?”
- The assessor may give time for participants to review the questions at this time to ensure they understand the nature of the questions. The assessor may need to clarify questions
- Participants may record written answers (where possible)
- Participants must submit the written answers to the assessor before the scheduled due date

- Assessor must assess the participant's written answers against the model answers provided as a guide, or their own understanding. The assessor can determine if the participant has answered the questions to a 'competent' standard
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet
- Forward/file assessment record.

Specifications for Observation Checklist

These specifications apply to the use of the Observation Checklist in determining competency for candidates.

Only an approved assessor is authorised to complete the Observation Checklist.

The assessor is required to observe the participant, ideally in a simulated environment or their practical workplace setting and record their performance (or otherwise) of the competencies listed on the Observation Checklist for the Competency Unit.

To complete the Observation Checklist the Assessor must:

- Insert name of candidate
- Insert assessor name
- Insert identify of location where observations are being undertaken
- Insert date/s of observations – may be single date or multiple dates
- Place a tick in either the 'Yes' or 'No' box for each listed Performance Criteria to indicate the candidate has demonstrated/not demonstrated that skill
- Provide written (and verbal) feedback to candidate – as/if appropriate
- Sign and date the form
- Present form to candidate for them to sign and date
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Observation Checklist.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the participant.

Specifications for Third Party Statement

These specifications relate to the use of a relevant workplace person to assist in determining competency for candidates.

The Third Party Statement is to be supplied by the assessor to a person in the workplace who supervises and/or works closely with the participant.

This may be their Supervisor, the venue manager, the Department Manager or similar.

The Third Party Statement asks the Supervisor to record what they believe to be the competencies of the participant based on their workplace experience of the participant. This experience may be gained through observation of their workplace performance, feedback from others, inspection of candidate's work etc.

A meeting must take place between the Assessor and the Third Party to explain and demonstrate the use of the Third Party Statement.

To complete the Third Party Verification Statement the Assessor must:

- Insert candidate name
- Insert name and contact details of the Third Party
- Tick the box to indicate the relationship of the Third Party to the candidate
- Present the partially completed form to the Third Party for them to finalise
- Collect the completed form from the Third Party
- Transcribe results/details to Competency Recording Sheet for candidate
- Forward/file Third Party Statement.

The Third Party must:

- Record their belief regarding candidate ability/competency as either:
  - Pass Competent = Yes
  - Not Yet Competent = No
  - Unsure about whether candidate is competent or not = Not Sure
- Meet briefly with the assessor to discuss and/or clarify the form.

This source of evidence combines with other forms of assessment to assist in determining the 'Pass Competent' or 'Not Yet Competent' decision for the candidate.

A separate Third Party Statement is required for each Competency Unit undertaken by the candidate.

- Prepare and present tour commentaries
- Provide arrival and departure assistance
- Research and share information on indigenous cultures
- Develop and update tourism industry knowledge.

Critical Aspects of Assessment

Evidence of the following is essential:

- Understanding of roles and responsibilities of a tour guide
- Understanding of legal, ethical and social issues in tour guiding
- Understanding of personal and customer safety and security in tour guiding
- Demonstrated ability to research and present hard copy information to support guiding activities for a nominated tour type, at a given location, to a designated group of customers, listing the legal, ethical and safety issues that attach to the conduct of that tour
- Demonstrated ability to lead a short, local tour of a nominated type for a designated group of people demonstrating the full range of roles, responsibilities and functions of a tour guide
- Demonstrated ability to describe and explain an actual or simulated customer complaint to a colleague, negotiating a resolution to the complaint and identifying how the same sort of complaint can be prevented in the future.

Context of Assessment

Assessment must ensure:

- Actual or simulated office environment for the research and development of tour guide knowledge, plus actual tour guide venues for the demonstration of practical tour guiding skills.

Resource Implications

Training and assessment must include the use of actual tour guiding sources and resources, actual or simulated customers and real sites, locations, venues, attractions and other situations that may be the focus of genuine tour guiding activities.

Assessment Methods

The following methods may be used to assess competency for this unit:

- Observation of practical candidate performance
- Portfolio of information that may support tour guiding activities
- Case studies
- Role plays
- Oral and written questions
- Third party reports completed by a supervisor
- Project and assignment work.

Key Competencies in this Unit

Level 1 = competence to undertake tasks effectively

Level 2 = competence to manage tasks

Level 3 = competence to use concepts for evaluating

Answers to written questions

Work as a tour guide – D2.TTG.CL3.01

The following are model answers only – Trainers/Assessors must use discretion when determining whether or not an answer provided by a Student is acceptable or not.

1. List 10 roles, functions and responsibilities of a Tour Guide.

- Manager and leader
- Mediator
- Communicator
- Cultural host
- Teacher and mentor
- Environmentalist
- Entertainer
- Safety and security officer
- Sales person
- Administrator.

2. Describe what is meant by an ‘On-site attractions guide’ identifying the tasks they undertake.

- Are specific to one (or a limited number) of venues, attractions, parks, gardens or destinations
- Meet and greet tourists on arrival
- Have an extremely detailed knowledge of the site they are working in
- Will be expected to promote sales within the site/attraction
- Manage tourists and visitors while they are on-site
- Will frequently:
  - Lead on-site tours
  - Conduct demonstrations relevant to the site/type of attraction
  - Supervise activities – such as experiential learning
  - Provide commentaries
  - Drive site-specific transport/vehicles
  - Organise and monitor on-site inclusions – such as meals, photo opportunities, displays, events, distribution of materials, rides, games
  - Farewell visitors and encourage repeat and referral business.

3. Describe what is meant by a ‘City guide’ identifying the tasks they undertake.

- Specialise in leading tours of one or more cities
- May conduct:
  - ‘City walks’
  - ‘Bicycle tours’
  - ‘Hop on, hop off’ tours – using public transport
  - Tours of a specific area of a city
  - Tours of specific business/property types within the city – such as fashion and clothing houses, restaurants, electronic wholesalers/retailers
  - Tours of certain lifestyle/life choices – such as medicine, nightlife, arts and culture, museums, history, activity-based options
- Often work closely with:
  - Councils
  - Tourism bodies including semi-government authorities
  - Local businesses.

4. Identify one type of Tour Guide not mentioned above and describe what is meant by that type of Guide identifying the tasks they undertake.

No model answer.

5. What is an ‘all inclusive tour’ and what ‘inclusions’ may be provided?

An all-inclusive tour is (more or less) what the name implies.

It is a tour where all of the inclusions are included in the purchase price. All inclusive tours generally apply to coach and sea travel/cruises.

The exact nature of these inclusions will vary depending on the tour and, of course, they can also vary between providers/Tour Operators.

Common inclusions are:

- Transfers
- Accommodation
- Meals
- Certain beverages – alcohol is usually not included
- Side trips and sight-seeing
- Listed activities – excursions, attractions, events, entertainment
- On-site services/facilities – gymnasium, sports, spa, games
- Tips/gratuities.

6. Briefly describe what an ‘escorted tour’ is.

An escorted tour is a group tour where the travel agent or organising agency provides a Tour Guide (or tour group leader or ‘tour director’) who escorts the tour group members for the duration of the tour.

An escorted tour is distinct from a self-guided tour where the traveller makes their own arrangements and makes their own way.

7. Define and explain ‘GIT’.

A GIT is a tour arranged for, or bought by, a group from an agent or Tour Operator.

All members of the group follow the same itinerary and have access to the same inclusions.

It may be escorted or unescorted.

It is ‘inclusive’ because it contains the traditional inclusions of travel, accommodation, meals, admissions, insurance, and transfers.

GITs are attractive to groups because the purchase price is usually less than the sum of the elements comprising the package.

8. What is an ‘itinerary’ and what information might it contain?

An itinerary is the plan for a trip.

Itineraries are developed for travel by air, sea and road (coach trips and extended trips using other land-based options).

An itinerary is commonly provided for every trip and all travel sold, and provided to the client.

It may list:

- Name and contact details of the organisation which has organised/sold the trip, tour or travel
- Name of client
- Dates and times – of travel (arrivals and departures) as well as trip time
- Destinations
- Activities
- Modes of travel
- Transportation details – such as name of vessel, flight number
- Accommodation arrangements – name of facility/hotel, room type, room number, dates
- Terms and conditions – for carriers, accommodation and other service providers
- Specific requirements relating to the travel/destinations – such as:
  - Visa requirements
  - Health issues
  - Time to arrive prior to departure
  - Customs and immigration requirements.

9. Describe five primary aims of the interpretive approach to guiding.

- Inform and educate
- Enrich the experience
- Engage the members of the tour group
- Communicate emotion/feelings as well as facts and figures
- Provide insight.

10. Describe six elements of the interpretive approach to guiding.

- Engaging participants – a key is to resonate and communicate with the tour group members of the tour.
- The aim is for active involvement of the audience where ‘active involvement may relate to physical or cerebral activity.
- Providing a verbal commentary – to explain and translate the characteristics, significance and features of the tour
- Identifying, explaining and attributing local, cultural and contextual meaning – to sights, activities and other topics which are the focus of the tour
- Facilitating learning – through development of understanding and awareness of the issues/subjects and content and revelation of hidden and/or deeper meanings
- Contextualising the tour – in terms of a local framework, local history, local culture, local issues and local flavour
- Generating and demonstrating respect and appreciation as appropriate to the tour – which may relate to local customs, history, people and the environment
- Being provocative – in terms of encouraging questions, stimulating thought, cultivating curiosity and promoting personal/self-reflection on issues
- Doing whatever is needed to bring the tour to life within the context of the individual tour – which can mean:
  - Using costumes
  - Telling stories and anecdotes
  - Demonstrating
  - Involving participants in a variety of ways in different activities
  - Meeting/interacting with locals
  - Experiential learning
  - Building relationships – between tour group members and:
    - Locals
    - The environment
    - Whatever is the focus of the tour.

11. Name an example of a 'site-based' tour and fully describe what is covers/includes.

No model answer – answer will depend on example provided by candidate.

12. Name an example of a 'special interest' tour and fully describe what is covers/includes.

No model answer – answer will depend on example provided by candidate.

13. List 10 characteristics accepted as being essential for Tour Guides.

16. Identify five generic examples of activities a Tour Guide might undertake to acquire and update industry skills and knowledge.

- Attending industry seminars and similar
- Partaking in industry and related training courses
- Undertaking fam tours
- Joining a professional guiding association
- Undertaking formal and informal research
- Practicing required skills.

17. Describe what is meant by 'Duty of Care' explaining why Tour Guides should be aware of this concept.

All Tour Guides are under a common law Duty of Care liability to take 'reasonable' care of the people they are leading/providing guiding services to.

In essence this means they must avoid causing 'foreseeable' harm to any tour group members. Failure to discharge this Duty of Care can result in being sued for negligence.

Different types/levels of negligence exist:

- Contributory negligence
- Gross negligence
- Vicarious liability
- Comparative negligence.

18. When a claim/advertisement is made about a tour, what 'fair trading' obligations must be met?

The basic requirement is all such claims must be truthful and honest – they must not be:

- False
- Misleading
- Deceptive.

19. Describe five safety requirements/obligations imposed on Tour Guides when they lead tours.

- Complying with occupational health, safety and welfare requirements – as they apply to individual tours and situations
- Ensuring the responsible behaviour of customers – including:
  - Controlling unacceptable behaviour
  - Modifying unsafe behaviour
- Checking equipment, locations, facilities and the environment so there is full knowledge of applicable conditions/the environment
- Practising implementation of prescribed emergency responses – to identified emergency situations
- Managing risk – including:
  - Risk identification
  - Risk assessment
  - Risk control
  - Explanation of potential hazards to others
- Removing identified dangerous activities or undertakings from the itinerary – where necessary and (if possible) replacing them with an appropriate alternative
- Abandoning the tour under conditions where the safety of customers cannot be guaranteed – and adhering to company policy regarding reimbursement of payment
- Providing safety advice, directions and demonstrations to customers – including:
  - Monitoring of the implementation of advice
  - Provision of supplementary guidance as necessary
- Actively participating in discussions regarding the development of new tours and itineraries and contributing personal experiences and lessons learned.

20. List five reasons Tour Guides will check arrival schedules as part of their pre-arrival activities.

To ensure:

- Capturing hard copy information about tours and groups for the day/shift
- Knowledge of times groups are arriving
- Knowledge about composition of group
- Knowledge about any issue/detail to be clarified and/or obtained in relation to the group/individual members of the group
- Knowledge about how groups/members are arriving – public transport, private vehicle, shuttle bus
- Knowledge about exactly where they will be arriving – booking office, departure lounge, outside on footpath/in car park ('muster point').

21. Name five items commonly found in a 'Guide kit; which a Tour Guide should ensure they have when leading a tour.

- Maps
- First aid kits
- Communications devices
- Pen and paper and nominated internal forms
- Contact List
- Tour notes and script for commentary
- Prop kit.

22. Identify five standard requirements a Tour Guide needs to observe when greeting tour group members on their arrival for a tour?

- Being there – it is important to be there before the advertised/promised starting time and before tourists arrive to demonstrate preparedness for their arrival
- A verbal welcome – to the group and individuals
- Introducing self – and role
- Thanking them – for arriving/taking the tour
- Smiling – the universal language
- Making necessary introductions – to other tour group members and to other staff Tour Guides who will be on tour
- Establishing a rapport with the group/individuals.

23. Describe five activities a Tour Guide could engage in when confirming tour details at the start of a tour.

- Verbally provide itinerary details – highlighting points of interest and special events and arrangements
- Distribute materials – such as name tags, itineraries, tickets, vouchers, handouts, tour materials
- Include a Q & A session – so participants have an opportunity to clarify issues, ease anxiety and obtain answers to their pressing questions/concerns
- Mention potential hazards – and identify safety protocols and emergency measures which have been established
- Explain tour group management protocols to ensure safety of all and no-one is separated from group or 'lost' on tour – covering:
  - Muster points
  - Need for everyone to check on others
  - Use of head counts
  - Provision of cell phone number for Tour Guide, driver, Tour Operator for people to use in emergency.

24. Identify seven basic communication strategies which can/should be used by Tour Guides to deliver commentaries on tour.

- Ensuring visibility to all tour group members
- Face the group
- Speaking loudly enough for everyone to hear or using technology to help project the voice
- Remaining enthusiastic and appropriate for the tour content
- Beginning the verbal commentary sufficiently in advance of a scheduled tour stop so participants have time to focus on whatever is the focus of the commentary
- Focussing attention on entire group
- Communicating at level that will be understood by the audience considering their age, education, language, culture and special needs
- Seeking feedback from the group throughout the commentary:
  - Encouraging questions
  - Making the commentary a 'unique' event
  - Knowing when to be quiet
  - Adjusting the commentary as required.

25. Give five tips which can be used by Tour Guides when handling problems with tour group members when on tour.

- Realise no problem will ever resolve itself
- Take responsibility for taking action – it is part of the job to do so
- All identified issues must be addressed – never simply ignore a problem
- If appropriate/possible, look for ‘safety angle’ on which to focus the conversation to be had with those creating/causing a problem or issue.
- Treat people with respect – talk politely with them allow them their dignity
- Aim to make the other person feel special, not to feel victimised
- Talk with people who need to be spoken to away from others in order to respect their right not to be embarrassed or challenged in front of others
- Try to stay calm – ‘Act’ but do not ‘over-react’
- Avoid using a loud voice and try to speak so the conversation is private, and so the participant/s do not feel as if they are being reprimanded in front of the rest of the group and being made to look silly or ‘small’
- Phrase what is said so it is not a personal ‘attack’ on the other person
- Try phrasing statements asking people to modify their behaviour as ‘requests’ rather than ‘commands’
- Give reasons why the request is being made
- Look through the eyes of the tour group member and try to see things from their perspective.

26. Describe six activities a Tour Guide should engage in as part of the process of farewelling tour group members at the end of a tour.

- Thank them for taking the tour
- Provide a farewell wish
- Express hope they enjoyed the tour/experience
- Encourage repeat tours
- Notify them of upcoming events and specials
- Handout promotional literature
- Invite them to tell others about the tour
- Distribute merchandise/product as required on departure of tour group members.

27. List five things Tour Guides should understand/acknowledge in relation to legal, ethical and safety considerations in relation to the conduct of tours.

- Consumers are becoming increasingly aware of their legal rights – so Tour Operators/tour leaders/guides need to be aware of their obligations to the client
- Legal terms and definitions are not always easy to interpret/understand – but there is an obligation to learn and interpret what they mean: importance is never an excuse
- Tour leaders/guides should know their legal rights/obligations
- There is a need to seek legal advice – from a legal professional, a recognised industry body/association or a relevant government agency
- Every Tourist Guide should be covered by public indemnity/liability (or similar) insurance
- All Tourist Guides should belong to a recognised Tour Guide Association – so they can obtain advice and assistance in this regard from industry specialists with relevant knowledge and experience
- A standards requirement for Tourist Guides is they hold a current and recognised First Aid certificate/qualification.

28. Describe five generic obligations Tour Guides and Tour Operators are under so they do not break the law.

Tour Operators and Tour Guides can be seen as breaking the law if they:

- Misrepresent tour activities, accommodation and other services and inclusions of a tour,
- Give negligent or inappropriate advice
- Provide unqualified or inappropriate staff or unsuitable suppliers to their tours
- Are negligent in their selection of supplier
- Do not provide care, wellbeing, comfort and safety of each individual on the tour.

They are obliged to:

- Provide the services as contracted – and outlined in brochure, contract or tender for the tour
- Ensure stated accommodation/services/sightseeing/attractions are included – as identified or promised
- Use 'expert guides' provided – who know what they are doing and have suitable experience and expertise appropriate to the tour type
- Ensure all practices of guide and other staff are safe, ethical and professional
- Provide safe and reliable services and facilities – at all times.

29. Give five possible reasons tour group members/clients will commence legal action against a Tour Operator or Tour Guide.

- Non compliance with stated terms and conditions – as laid down by the Tour Operator in their promotional materials.
- A tour leader/guide not adhering to the planned itinerary – as is their responsibility: that is, subject to unavoidable events (weather, closure of attractions, traffic accidents)
- Late provision of service – or late arrivals at destinations
- Inferior and/or cancelled service – when compared to itinerary/advertised tour/s
- Unfulfilled promises – of any sort
- Itinerary/accommodation changes – where inferior routes or destinations or accommodation are provided
- Loss/theft of property – whilst it is the responsibility of the tour company
- Accidents, illness or death – which occur on tour.

30. Describe five practical implementation requirements Tour Guides should ensure when conducting a tour to take account of relevant legal, ethical and/or safety obligations.

- Fulfil the Tour Operators contractual obligations – as stated in terms and conditions and any applicable contracts
- Ensure duty of care is discharged
- Be familiar with the terms and conditions and content of the tour/s – in order this knowledge forms the basis of action taken
- Provide accurate, relevant, and current information – in relation to all aspects of the tour
- Meet the day-to-day activities of the tour – as per the contractual agreement between the employer, employee and the consumer
- Provide care and wellbeing, comfort and safety to each individual on the tour.
- Conduct the tour in a professional manner
- Record all incidents and keep accurate records/documentation – of the tour
- Report and document any unusual occurrences
- Ensure all activities are performed under safe and acknowledged practice.

31. Explain what is meant by a Tour Guide being a ‘cultural host’ explaining why it is an important part of tour guiding

Being a cultural host is a major role of Tour Guide and is important because it:

- Helps visitors make a connection with the locals and the local culture and local people/communities
- Guards against and explains things which may cause ‘culture shock’ to some tourists.
- Assists visitors assimilate into local surroundings and the local experience.

This is important so visitors are prevented from giving unintended offence to any place they visit, or person they meet.

This role is also emphasised in situations where the tour group members cannot speak the local language and the guide is needed to interpret or help with communication.

32. Give five reasons it is important for Tour Guides to demonstrate respect for local culture.

- Meet expectations of tour group members
- Comply with promotional promises made about the tour
- Help minimise negative impacts of tour on local communities
- Maximise education of tourists regarding the country, area and/or communities
- Demonstrate the reverence in which aspects of the local area held by local people
- Generate enhanced local acceptance of tours by demonstrating respect for beliefs, customs and other important aspects of the people/community

33. List eight practices which have proved effective in demonstrating respect for local culture.

- Abide by Tour Operator arrangements which have been made between them and local communities – in relation to the conduct of individual tours which may impact them
- Ask permission from locals – before taking certain actions:
  - Never assume permission will be given
  - Always consult before taking action
- Always use common sense – but err on the side of being deferential towards local communities
- Avoid mentioning certain aspects of the local culture – if asked to do so
- Be prepared to explain aspects of the culture – which are known to be generally misunderstood by others/tourists
- Provide anecdotes which explain and illustrate the local culture – as opposed to providing lectures about it
- Ensuring integrity of all guiding and interpretation activities – so accuracy and honesty is provided about local culture
- Leading by example – the actions of the Tour Guide are a critical model for those on the tour as they will follow/copy what the leader does
- Being sensitive to issues which may have significance for certain cultures – such as matters which may relate to:
  - Gender
  - Age
  - Dress
  - Modes of address
- Maintaining secrecy – about certain aspects which locals do not want disclosed or discussed with ‘outsiders’
- Support the local community – which may involve:
  - Paying entry fees or other charges imposed by local communities
  - Buying goods and services from locals
  - Encouraging visitors to buy from the locals
  - Using a guide from the local community to help conduct local tours of certain areas.

34. Identify five practical procedures a Tour Guide could/should implement for minimising the negative impact of tours.

- Be careful and sensitive in relation to ecological issues – do nothing to negatively impact the local ecology/environment:
  - Limit local water use
  - Never leave rubbish behind
  - Take care to do nothing which erodes the land
- Be mindful of local persons, activities and preferences if asked by a local community – for example:
  - Do not operate tours at times/on days identified by locals as being 'restricted' in some way (such as because of local religious or other beliefs, due to established local custom, as a result of the needs, wants and preferences of local people)
  - Do not enter nominated areas – in certain locales
  - Walk only on designated paths
  - Do not go within a given distance of wildlife, activities, persons, buildings or other nominated events
  - Ask tourists not to look at and/or intervene in nominated things – or initiate conversation with local people
  - Advise and demonstrate to tourists important aspects of local manners – and what is considered normal and acceptable, as well as what is deemed to be rude and disrespectful
  - Restrict numbers of tourists who enter an area – to reduce their immediate impact and to limit unintentional disturbance/interference with normal activities
  - Ask tourists not to stare at locals
  - Where appropriate, tell visitors to ask for permission before taking photographs – or ban taking of cameras/cell phones into certain areas
- Control visitations – by:
  - Setting limits for::
    - Maximum numbers on a tour
  - Number of visits/tours to an area/destination per day, week or other period
  - Developing and offering alternatives – to tours to sensitive areas
  - Providing effective management of tours and tour group members
- Commit to compliance – this means:
  - Making public statements the tour and the Tour Guide and Tour Operator:
    - Is committed to nominated Codes and Agreements
    - Is committed to observing and implementing all relevant legislation

- Advising tour groups:
  - Of the limitations/restrictions imposed on tours by Agreements, Codes and legislation
  - Scheduled activities and the planned itinerary are subject to change where the Tour Guide believes they will negatively impact the local area
  - Anyone identified as breaching requirements in this regard will be asked to modify their behaviour and/or leave the tour.
- Participate in planning – as Tour Guides it is important to:
  - Take part in discussions about principles and practices for responsible and sustainable tour actions
  - Provide feedback and input to the planning process based on personal experiences and observations
  - Be prepared to implement and trial draft policies and procedures.

35. Identify four generic classifications of tourism industry operators with whom Tour Guides may be required to communicate with.

- Carriers
- Destinations
- Third party providers
- Tour-based operators.

36. Name five possible topics for discussion when Tour Guides communicate with tourism industry operators.

- Feedback from tourists about:
  - Satisfaction levels
  - Suggestions for change
  - Special requests
  - Best/worst aspects of their experience
  - Regular/common complaints and compliments
- Results of customer/market research conducted by the business in relation to a range of issues such as:
  - What they liked /disliked
  - Reasons for using the services of the business
  - Needs, wants and preferences
- Recommendations for improvements and initiatives – in relation to:
  - Inclusions
  - Pricing

  - Itineraries
  - Scheduling
  - Carriers
- Social, cultural and business requirements and contexts - including practical implementation of tour delivery in relation to issues such as:
  - Verbal and body language
  - Cultural customs and mores
  - Ethical conduct
  - Sustainability
- Identification of operational problems – and presentation of possible solutions to same based on personal experience and known operational parameters.

37. List four points which should be observed by Tour Guides when communicating with tourism industry operators.

- Honour commitments –make an effort to:
  - Attend required meetings
  - Contribute as required or as promised
  - Learn what is required and meet those obligations
- Use industry terminology – but clarify any terms, phrases, acronyms or abbreviations with the potential to confuse
- Seek to:
  - Provide information
  - Source information
  - Achieve mutual understanding
  - Reach agreement on issues and guiding activities and protocols
  - Consult in an open manner
- Be careful – take care to:
  - Differentiate personal opinion from employer point of view
  - Separate fact from opinion
  - Never commit the employer to anything without their express permission
  - Ask employer to approve statements or comments to be made on behalf of the organisation.

38. Name four classifications of colleagues Tour Guides may need to communicate with.

- Other Guides
- Support staff
- Drivers
- Management.

39. List five opportunities Tour Guides have for communication with other colleagues.

- Daily briefing sessions
- The 'Communication Book' or similar used by many employers
- Regular staff meetings
- Chance meetings with others
- Use of internal communication forms and reports which need to be completed before, during and at the end of tours- and after designated activities such as various checks and inspections
- Taking advantage of 'open door' policy implemented by management.

---

40. Identify three methods Tour Guides might use to communicate with colleagues.

- Making presentations at meetings – involving a range/combination of:
    - Speech, discussion and talking
    - Handouts
    - Slide presentations
    - Guest Speakers
    - Demonstrations
  - Talking to people:
